BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF RIVIERA BEACH, PALM BEACH COUNTY, FLORIDA, that:

Section 1 ARTICLE I. IN GENERAL

Sec. 11-1.1. BUSINESS LICENSES of Chapter 11 (Licenses and Provisional Business Regulations) of the Code of the City of Riviera Beach, Florida, is further amended by amending Sec. 11-1 "License Schedule - Amount of tax to be paid", to read as follows:

Sec. 11-1.2. LICENSES GRANTED ONLY TO PERSONS OF GOOD MORAL CHARACTER, TRUSTWORTHY, ETC.

Licenses provided for by this Code shall be granted only persons who are of good moral character, trustworthy and bear a good reputation for honesty and fair dealing.

(a) GENERAL STANDARDS TO BE APPLIED. The general standards herein set out relative to the qualifications of every applicant for a city license shall be considered and applied by the tax collector.

(1) Loyalty. Not, either individually, or as a member of any party, group, or organization, at the time of any such application for a license or special permit, advocate or resort to any practices subversive of or designed for the overthrow, destruction, or sabotage of the government of the United States.

(2) Good moral character. In making such determination, the tax collector shall consider:

(a) PENAL HISTORY. All Convictions, the reasons therefor, and the demeanor of the applicant subsequent to his release.

(b) LICENSE HISTORY. The license history of the applicant; whether such person, in previously operating in this or another state under a license has had such license revoked or suspended, the reasons therefor, and the demeanor of the applicant subsequent to such action.

(c) GENERAL PERSONAL HISTORY. Such other facts relevant to the general personal history of the applicant as he shall find necessary to a fair determination of the eligibility of the applicant.

(3) No obligations to city. Not be in default under the provisions of this chapter or indebted or obligated in any manner to the city except for current taxes.

ARTICLE II. BUSINESS REGULATIONS

Sec. 11-2. LICENSE OR PRIVILEGE TAX LEVIED; SAME TO BE ON BASIS OF ONE YEAR

A license or privilege tax is hereby imposed upon every business engaged in or carried on, either wholly or in part, within the city in the repective amounts set forth in the license schedule in this article. Every person engaging in, carrying on, managing or practicing any business, either wholly or in part, within the city is hereby required to pay to the city a license or privilege tax in the amount designated by the license schedule. The amount of such tax shall be on the basis of one year.

Sec. 11-3. DEFINITIONS.

For the purpose of this chapter, the following words and phrases shall have the meanings respectively ascribed to them by this section:

Business: All kinds of vocations, occupations, professions, enterprises, establishments and all other kinds of activities and matters, together with all devices, machines, vehicles and appurtenances used therein, any of which are conducted for private profit or benefit, either directly or indirectly. "Business," "profession", and "occupation" do not include the customary religious, charitable or educational activities of nonprofit religious, nonprofit charitable and nonprofit educational institutions; which institutions are more particularly defined and limited as follows:

(a) "Religious institutions" shall mean churches and ecclesiastical or denominational organizations, or established physical places for worship at which nonprofit religious services and activities are regularly conducted and carried on, and shall also mean church cemeteries.

(b) "Educational institutions" shall mean tax supported or parochial, church and nonprofit private schools, colleges or universities conducting regular classes and courses of study required for accreditation by or membership in the Southern Association of colleges and Secondary Schools, Department of Education or the Florida Council of Independent Schools. Nonprofit libraries, art galleries and museums open to the public are defined as educational institutions and eleigible for exemption.

(c) "Charitable institutions" shall mean only nonprofit corporations operating physical facilities at which are provided charitable services, a reasonable percentage of which shall be without cost to those unable to pay.

License or licensee: Such term shall include, respectively, the words "permit" or "permitee" or the holder for any use or period of time of any similar privilege, wherever relevant to any provisions of this chapter or other law or ordinance.

Person: "Person" means any individual, firm, partnership, joint adventure, syndicate or other group or combination acting as a unit, association, corporation, estate, trust, business trust, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver or other fiduciary and shall include the plural as well as the singular.

Premises: All lands, structures, places and also the equipment and appurtenances connected or used therewith in any business, and also any personal property which is either affixed to or is otherwise used in connection with any such business conducted on such premises.

Boat, motor or boat trailer dealer: A "boat, motor or boat trailer dealer" shall mean any person engaged in the sale of boats and inboard or outboard motors or boat trailers, provided that the same is conducted from one location.

Adult bookstore is a place where books, magazines, records, photographs or moving pictures are sold, or a part of any business set aside as a place where books, magazines, records, photographs or moving pictures are sold, which has as its principal purpose the offering for sale to adults of books, magazines, records, photographs, moving pictures or other merchandise which have as their dominant or primary theme matters depicting, describing or relating to specified sexual activities.

Adult motion picture booth is an area within an adult motion picture theater designed for or used for the viewing by one or two (2) persons of motion pictures which have as their dominant or primary theme matters depicting, describing or relating to specified sexual activities.

Adult motion picture theater is a place where motion pictures are shown, or a section, department, or part of any business set aside for the showing of motion pictures, which has as its principal purpose the offering for viewing to adults of motion pictures which have as their dominant or primary theme matters depicting, describing or relating to specified sexual activities.

Adult motel or hotel is a place where motion pictures are shown in rooms designed primarily for lodging, which motion pictures have as their dominant or primary theme matters depicting, describing or relating to specified sexual activities.

Department is the police department of the city.

Interested party is any person, partnership or corporation which is an applicant for a licesnse or who is an employee of an applicant for a license, any person who is a partner in a partnership which is an applicant for a license and any person, partnership or corporation which is an officer, director or principal stockholder of a corporation which is an applicant for a license.

License shall mean a regulatory license under the provisions of this article for the operation of an adult bookstore or a regulatory license for the operation of an adult motion picture theater or a regulatory license for the operation of an adult motel or hotel.

Principal stockholder is any person, partnership or corporation which owns or controls legally or beneficially twenty-five (25) per cent or more of a corporation's outstanding stock. In addition, if a principal stockholder of a corporation (referred to herein as corporation B), the officers, directors and principal stockholders of corporation B shall be considered principal stockholders of corporation A. If a corporation is registered with the Federal Securities Exchange Commission or is registered pursuant to Chapter 517 Florida Statutes, and the corporation's stock is for sale to the general public, such corporation shall be considered not to have any principal stockholders.

Dance studio: A "dance studio" is a place where lessons are given to students of the studio, and there is no dancing except as part of the instructions. This classification does not cover public dance halls or dancing academies, where dancing is engaged in generally.

Demonstrator: The term "demonstrator" shall mean those persons who make arrangements with housewives or clubs to give parties, inviting guests or club members, where wares, goods or merchandise are demonstrated by samples or catalogues and orders taken for future delivery.

Insurance adjustor (independent): An "independent insurance adjustor" is a person who investigates and adjusts losses and claims for insurance companies as an independent business.

Kindergartens and day camps: "Kindergartens and day camps" shall mean, when used herein, an institution or place in which two (2) or more children, not of common parentage, are received for periods of not less than four (4) hours at any one time, for care apart from their parents, for compensation or reward. Kindergartens do not keep children overnight.

Wholesale merchant: A "wholesale merchant" shall mean one who buys from a broker or manufacturer and sells to a retail merchant.

Sec. 11-3.1. SCOPE OF CHAPTER.

Where this chapter imposes a greater restriction upon persons, premises or personal property than is imposed or required by existing provisions of law, ordinance, contract or deed, the provisions of this chapter shall control.

Sec. 11-3.2. COMPLIANCE WITH CHAPTER; LICENSES REQUIRED

It shall be unlawful for any person, either directly or indirectly, to conduct any business, profession or occupation or to use in connection therewith any vehicle, premises, machine or device, in whole or in part, for which a license or permit is required by any law or ordinance of this city without a license or permit therefor being first procured and kept in effect at all times as required by this chapter or other law or ordinances of the city. Such occupational licenses shall be required of:

(2) Any person who maintains a permanent business location or branch office within said municipality for the privilege of engaging in or managing any profession or occupation within its jurisdiction; and

(3) Any person who does not qualify under the provisions of (1) or (2) above and who transacts any business or engages in any occupation or profession in interstate commerce where such license tax is not prohibited by Section 8 of Article 1 of the United States Constitution.

Sec. 11-3.3. LICENSE OR PRIVILEGE TAX LEVIED; SAME TO BE ON BASIS OF ONE YEAR.

A license or privilege tax is hereby imposed upon every business engaged in or carried on, either wholly or in part, within the City in the respective amounts set forth in the license schedule. Every person engaging in, carrying on, managing or practicing any business, either wholly or in part, within the city is hereby required to pay to the city a license or privilege tax in the amount designated by the license schedule. The amount of such tax shall be on the basis of one year.

Sec. 11-3.4. DURATION AND PRORATION OF LICENSES; ISSUANCE OF SAME.

All licenses required by this chapter shall expire on the thirtieth day of September of each year. No license shall be issued for more than one year. For each license due between October first and April first, the full tax for one year shall be paid, except as hereinafter provided. For each license due between April first and July first, one-half (½) of the full tax for one year shall be paid, except as hereinafter provided. For each license due between July first and September thirtieth, one-fourth (¼) of the full amount of tax for one year shall be paid, except as hereinafter provided. Upon payment of such tax, the tax collector shall issue to the person paying the same a receipt or license, signed by such tax collector, which receipt or license shall expire at the end of the period for which such license is issued as hereinabove specified. The fact that the licensee has not received a bill or notice from the city of license tax due shall not be a defense in any prosecution for a violation of this chapter.

Sec. 11-4. HOW TAX CONSTRUED AS TO PROFESSIONS.

The license or privilege tax provided in the license schedule for architects, auctioneers, auditors or accountants, dentists, draftsmen, civil engineers, lawyers, osteopaths, chiropractors, chiropodists, phrenologists, physicians or surgeons, real estate salesmen or other similar professions shall be construed to mean that each individual shall pay the tax provided, whether practicing by himself or in partnership or employed by another.

Sec. 11-4.1. AFFIDAVITS AS TO AMOUNT OF STOCK IN TRADE, NUMBER OF ROOMS, ETC., REQUIRED IN CERTAIN CASES.

Whenever the amount of the license fee applied for depends upon the amount of stock in trade carried by the applicant, or the number of rooms in a hotel or rooming house, or any other facts not within the personal knowledge of the tax collector, no license shall be issued until the applicant therefor has made and filed with the tax collector an affidavit, duly authenticated, setting forth the amount of his stock in trade, number of rooms in his hotel or boardinghouse or other facts upon which the amount of such license fee depends.

Sec. 11-4.2. TRANSFER OF LICENSE.

(a) All licenses may be transferred to a new owner when there is a bona fide sale of the business upon payment of a transfer fee of three dollars ($3.00) and presentation of evidence of the sale and the original license.

(b) Upon written request and presentation of the original license, any license may be transferred from one location to another location upon payment of a transfer fee of three dollars ($3.00).

Sec. 11-4.3. LICENSE NOT TO PROTECT PERSONS FROM DOING BUSINESS NOT COVERED THEREIN; LICENSE OBTAINED BY FALSE STATEMENTS VOID AB INITIO.

No license issued under the provisions of this chapter shall protect any person from prosecution for transacting any business not covered by such license, or shall protect any merchant doing business with a greater stock in trade than covered by such license, or any hotel keeper or rooming house keeper having a greater number of rooms than is covered by such license. Any license issued upon any false statement made under oath shall be considered as void ab inition and shall not protect the holder thereof from prosecution for transacting business without a license.

Sec. 11-4.4. CERTAIN PERSONS PROHIBITED FROM RETAINING LICENSES, NOTICE

Any person who has obtained a license under the provisions of this code and who is found to be of loose morals or who is found to be engaged in the manufacture, sale, barter or exchange of intoxicating liquors or beverages for unlawful purposes who has unlawful possession of intoxicating liquors or beverages or who is found to be untrustworthy and dishonorable upon investigation to be made by the tax collector shall be deemed to be a person prohibited from obtaining a license under this Code, and any such license so issued to such person shall upon written notice served upon him as provided in section 11-27 become null and void, and of no effect.

Sec. 11-4.5. EVIDENCE OF ENGAGING IN BUSINESS.

The fact that a person represents himself as being engaged in any business for which a license is required for the transaction of business or the practice of a profession shall be evidence of the liability of such person to pay a license, regardless of whether such person actually transacts any business or practices a profession. Soliciting business, displaying a sign or advertising which indicates the conduct of a business of profession in the classified section of the telephone directory, city directory, or other media shall be sufficient evidence that such person is holding himself out to the public as being engaged in a business or profession.

Sec. 11-4.6. AGENTS RESPONSIBLE FOR OBTAINING LICENSE.

The agents or other representatives of nonresidents who are doing business in the city shall be personally responsible for compliance with this chapter by their principals and of the businesses they represent.

Sec. 11-4.7. EACH LOCATION TO HAVE SEPARATE LICENSE.

If any person operates any business at more than one location, each location shall be considered a separate business and a separate license therefor is required, unless otherwise provided for in this chapter.

Sec. 11-4.8. TAX FOR WHOLESALE AND RETAIL MERCHANTS.

Any person who is both a wholesale and retail merchant, as defined in the license schedule, is hereby required to pay a license tax on both the retail and wholesale business.

Sec. 11-4.9. COMPLIANCE BY PRINCIPAL DEEMED COMPLIANCE BY AGENT

Where the principal, master or employer has complied with the provisions of this chapter, it shall be unneceesary for his agent, servant or emplyee to comply herewith, unless otherwise expressly provided for herein; provided, that in the event such principal, master or employer shall not have complied with the provisions of this chapter, each of his agents, servants or employees shall be subject to prosecution, and upon conviction to fine or imprisonment to the same extent as his principal, master or employer.

Sec. 11-4.10. EXEMPTIONS.

Disabled veterans of the Spanish-American War, World War I, World War II and the Korean War, all confirmed cripples, deaf and dumb persons and invalids physically incapable of manual labor, widows with minor dependents and persons sixty-five (65) years of age or older shall be allowed the same exemptions as such persons are now or shall hereafter be entitled to by law in connections with state and county licenses.

Sec. 11-4.11. OCCUPATIONAL LICENSES; DATES DUE AND DELINQUENT; PENALTIES

(a) All licenses shall be sold by the appropriate tax collector beginning September 1st of each year and shall be due and payable on October 1st of each year and shall expire on September 30th of the succeeding year. Those licenses not renewed by October 1st shall be considered delinquent and subject to a delinquency penalty of ten per cent (10%) for the month of October, plus an additional five per cent (5%) penalty for each month of delinquency thereafter until paid; provided, that the total delinquency penalty shall not exceed twenty-five per cent (25%) of the occupational license fee for the delinquent establishment.

(b) Any person engaging in or managing any business, occupation or profession without first obtaining a local occupation license, if required hereunder, shall be subject to a penalty of twenty-five per cent (25%) of the license determined to be due, in addition to any other penalty provided by law or ordinance.

(c) In addition to the foregoing penalties, any person engaged in any business within the city without a license or under a license issued upon false statement made by such person or in his behalf shall, upon conviction therof, except as may be otherwise provided in this chapter, be fined not more than double the amount of the tax which such person is required to pay or imprisoned in the city jail for a period not to exceed five (5) days, but in no case shall both such fine and imprisonment be inflicted.

(d) In any prosecutions under this chapter, the fact that such person is open for business shall be prima facie evidence of engaging in such trade, business, profession or occupation, and the burden shall be upon the defendant to refuse the same.

(e) Each day or part of a day that any provision of this chapter is violated shall constitute a separate and distinct offense, for which such person or his agents, servants or employees may be prosecuted.

Sec. 11-4.12. METHOD OF COLLECTION OF DELINQUENT LICENSE TAXES GENERALLY; LIENS.

(a) Whenever any person who is subject to the payment of a license or privilege tax provided by this chapter or any other ordinance of the city or law of the state shall fail to pay the same when due, the tax collector or other official to whom the tax is payable may issue a warrant directed to all and singularly to the chief of police of the city, the sheriff and deputy sheriff of the county, commanding them and each of them to levy upon and sell any real or personal property of the person liable for such tax within his respective jurisdiction for the amount thereof and the cost of executing the warrant, and to return such warrant to the officer issuing same, and to pay to him the money collected by virtue thereof.

(b) The chief of police or sheriff to whom such warrant may be delivered shall proceed in all respects and in the same manner prescribed by law in regard to executions issued against property upon judgements of a circuit court, and shall be entitled to the same fee for his services in executing the warrant, to be collected in the same manner. The officer issuing the warrant shall file a copy of the warrant with the clerk of the circuit court of the county and the clerk shall record the same, whereupon the amount of the warrant and recording fee shall become a lien upon the title to and interest, whether legal or equitable, in any property, whether real, personal or mixed, of the person against whom the warrant is issued, in the same manner and to the same extent as a judgement duly docketed in the office of such clerk of the circuit court with execution duly issued and in the hands of the sheriff or the chief of police of the city. Any person subject to and who fails to pay a license or privilege tax required by this chapter or any other ordinance of the city or law of the state shall, on petition of the officer to whom such tax is payable, be enjoined by the circuit court from engaging in the business for which he has failed to pay such license, until such time as he shall pay the same with all costs of such action, as provided by Section 205.10, Florida Statutes.

Sec. 11-5. DUTIES OF TAX COLLECTOR.

The tax collector shall collect all license fees and shall issue licenses in the name of the city to all persons qualified under the provisions of this chapter, and shall:

(a) Make rules. Promulgate and enforce all reasonable rules and regulations necessary to the operation and enforcement of this chapter, with the approval of the city commission.

(b) Adopt forms. Adopt all forms and prescribe the information to be given therein as to character and other relevant matters for all necessary papers.

(c) Require affidavits. Require applicants to submit all affidavits and oaths necessary to the administration of this chapter.

(d) Obtain endorsements. Submit all applications, in a proper case, to interested city officials for their endorsements thereon as to compliance by the applicant with all city regulations which they have the duty of enforcing.

(e) Investigate. Investigate and determine the eligibility of any applicant for a license, as prescribed in this chapter.

(f) Give notice. Notify any applicant of the acceptance or rejection of his application and shall, upon his refusal of any license or permit, at the applicant's request, state in writing the reasons therefor and deliver them to the applicant.

(g) Examine records. Examine the books and records of any applicant or licensee when reasonably necessary to the administration and enforcement of this chapter.

Sec. 11-5.1. DUTIES OF LICENSE INSPECTOR

The license inspector shall perform all functions designated by the Building Official to enforce and carry out the provisions of this Chapter.

Sec. 11-5.2. INFORMATION CONFIDENTIAL

The tax collector shall keep all information furnished or secured under the authority of this chapter in strict confidence. Such information shall not be subject to public inspections and shall be kept so that the contents therof shall not become known except to the persons charged with the administration of the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 11-5.3. DUPLICATE LICENSE PROCEDURE.

A duplicate license or special permit shall be issued by the tax collector to replace any license previously issued which has been lost, stolen, defaced or destroyed without any willfull conduct on the part of the licensee, upon the filing by the licensee of an affidavit, sworn to before a notary public of this state, attesting to such fact.

Sec. 11-5.4. GENERAL STANDARDS OF CONDUCT OF LICENSEES.

Every licensee under this chapter shall:

(a) Permit inspection. Permit all reasonable inspections of his business and examinations of his books by public authorities so authorized by law.

(b) Comply with governing law. Ascertain and at all times comply with all laws and regulations applicable to such licensed business.

(c) Operate properly. Avoid all forbidden, improper or unnecessary practices or conditions which do or may affect the public health, safety, morals or welfare.

(d) Cease business upon expiration of license. Refrain from operating the licensed businesses on premises after expiration of his license and during the period his license is revoked or suspended.

Sec. 11-5.5. DISPLAY OF LICENSES AND INSIGNIA.

Every licensee under this chapter shall:

(1) Licenses. Post and maintain such license upon the licensed premises in a place where it may be seen at all times.

(2) Insignia. Affix any insignia delivered for use in connection with business premises in a prominent place, visible at all times.

(1) Generally. Any general or special license fees required for any kind of vehicle, for the privilege of being operated upon the public highways, by any statute, provision of this Code or other ordinance, shall not abrogate, limit or affect any further requirements of this chapter or of other ordinances or laws for additional and separate licenses, permits and insignia and fees for such vehicles, or other uses, for and relating to the privilege of using the same in the business so licensed.

(2) Motor vehicles. Affix any insignia delivered for use in connection with a licensed motor vehicle on the inside of the windshield of the vehicle or as may be otherwise prescribed by the tax collector or by law.

(3) Motorless vehicles. Affix any metal or durable type of insignia delivered for use in connection with a wagon or other vehicle not operated by motor power securely on the outside of such vehicle.

(c) PERSONS. Carry such license on his person when he has no licensed business premises.

(d) MACHINES. Affix any insignia delivered for use in connection therewith upon the outside of any coin, vending or other business machine or device, so that it may be seen at all times.

(e) INOPERATIVE LICENSES, SPECIAL PERMITS AND INSIGNIA. Not allow any license, special permit or insignia to remain posted, displayed or used after the period for which it was issued has expired, or when it has been suspended or revoked or for any other reason become ineffective. The licensee shall promptly return such inoperative license, special permit or insignia to the tax collector.

(f) UNLAWFUL POSSESSION. Not loan, sell, give or assign to any other person or allow any other person to use or display, or destroy, damage or remove, or have in his possession, except as authorized by the tax collector or by law, any license, or insignia which has been issued to such licensee.

Sec. 11-5.6. INSPECTIONS.

(a) Persons authorized. The following persons are authorized to conduct inspections in the manner prescribed herein:

(1) License inspector. The license inspector shall make all investigations reasonably necessary to the enforcement of this chapter.

(2) Officials having duties. The tax collector shall have the authority to order the inspection of licensees, their businesses and premises, by all city officials having duties to perform with reference to such licensees or businesses.

(3) Police officers. All police officers shall inspect and examine businesses located within their respective jurisdictions (or beats) to enforce compliance with this chapter.

(b) Authority of inspectors. All persons authorized herein to inspect all licensees and businesses shall have the authority to enter, with or without search warrant, at all reasonable times, the following premises:

(1) Those for which a license is required.

(2) Those for which a license was issued and which, at the time of inspection, are operating under such license.

(3) Those for which the license has been revoked or suspended.

(c) Reports by inspectors. Persons inspecting licensees, their businesses or premises, as herein authorized, shall report all violations of this chapter or of other laws or ordinances to the tax collector and shall submit such other reports as the tax collector shall order.

Sec. 11-6.1. ENFORCEMENT OF CHAPTER - PROVISIONAL ORDER.

When an inspector has reported the violation of any provision of this chapter or of any law or ordinance, the tax collector shall issue to the affected person a provisional order to comply.

(a) Nature of notice. The provisional order and all other notices issued in compliance herewith shall be in writing, shall be personally served and shall apprise the person affected of his specific violations. In the absence of the person affected or his agent or employee, a copy of such notice shall be affixed to some structure on the premises. Depositing such notice in the United States mail shall constitute service thereof.

(b) Period for compliance. The provisional order shall require compliance within fifteen (15) days of personal service on the affected person.

(c) Hearing. Upon written application by the person affected before the expiration of the fifteen (15) day period for compliance, the city commission shall order a hearing. Notice of such hearing shall be given the affected person in the manner prescribed herein.

Sec. 11-6.2. SAME - FINAL ORDER.

Upon the failure or refusal of the violator to comply with the provisional order or with any order made after hearing, the city council shall then declare and make the provisional order final, and may order the permanent or temporary suspension of the licensee's license.

Sec. 11-6.3. SAME - SUMMARY ACTION.

When the conduct of any licensee, agent or employee is so inimicable to the public health, safety and general welfare as to constitute a nuisance and thus give rise to an emergency, upon recommendation of the tax collector, the city council shall have the authority summarily to order the cessation of business and the close of premises or to suspend or revoke the license.

Sec. 11-6.4. SAME - SPECIAL HEARING FOLLOWING SUMMARY ACTION

Unless waived in writing, within fifteen (15) days after the city council has acted summarily, it shall conduct a special hearing for such action in respect to the summary order as may be therein determined. Notice of such hearing shall be given the affected person in the manner prescribed herein. The decisions of the city council at this special hearing shall be final and conclusive.

Sec. 11-7. REFUND OF PRO RATA PORTION OF LICENSE.

In the case of revocation and cancellation of any license under this chapter, the city shall refund to such licensee the pro rata unearned or unused portion of his license. However, no refund shall be made where the license is temporarily suspended.

Sec. 11-8. LICENSE SCHEDULE - AMOUNT OF TAX TO BE PAID.

Sec. 11-9-11-14 Reserved.

ARTICLE III. ADULT BOOKSTORES, MOTION PICTURE THEATERS, MOTELS AND HOTELS*

DIVISION 1. GENERALLY

Sec. 11-15 Purpose.

It is the purpose of this article to regulate adult bookstores, adult motion picture theaters and motels and hotels so as to lessen the concentration of such establishments and their proximity to each other and to other stated establishments which would otherwise work a deleterious effect upon the adjacent areas and could contribute to the blighting and downgrading of the surrounding neighborhoods. ( )

Sec. 11-16 Definitions.

The following terms, when used in this article, shall have the meanings respectively ascribed to them in this section:

Adult bookstore is a place where books, magazines, records, photographs or moving pictures are sold, or a part of any business set aside as a place where books, magazines, records, photographs or moving pictures are sold, which has as its principal purpose the offering for sale to adults of books, magazines, records, photographs, moving pictures or other merchandise which have as their dominant or primary theme matters depicting, describing or relating to specified sexual activities.

Adult motion picture booth is an area within an adult motion picture theater designed for or used for the viewing by one or two (2) persons of motion pictures which have as their dominant or primary theme matters depicting, describing or relating to specified sexual activities.

Adult motion picture theater is a place where motion pictures are shown, or a section, department, or part of any business set aside for the showing of motion pictures, which has as its priniipal purpose the offering for viewing to adults of motion pictures which have as their dominant or primary theme matters depicting, describing or relating to specified sexual activities.

Adult motel or hotel is a place where motion pictures are shown in rooms designed primarily for lodging, which motion pictures have as their dominant or primary theme matters depicting, describing or relating to specified sexual activities.

Department is the police department of the city.

Interested party is any person, partnership or corporation which is an applicant for a license or who is an employee of an applicant for a license, any person who is a partner in a partnership which is an applicant for a license and any person, partnership or corporation which is an officer, director or principal stockholder of a corporation which is an applicant for a license.

License shall mean a regulatory license under the provisions of this article for the operation of an adult bookstore or a regulatory license for the operation of an adult motion picture theater or a regulatory license for the operation of an adult motel or hotel.

Principal stockholder is any person, partnership or corporation which owns or controls legally or beneficially twenty-five (25) per cent or more of a corporation's outstanding stock. In addition, if a principal stockholder of a corporation (referred to herein as corporation A) is another corporation (referred to herein as corporation B), the officers, directors and principal stockholders of corporation B shall be considered principal stockholders of corporation A. If a corporation is registered with the Federal Securities Exchange Commission or is registered pursuant to Chapter 517 of Florida Statutes, and the corporation's stock is for sale to the general public, such corporation shall be considered not to have any principal stockholders.

Specified criminal act is any felony or soliciting for prostitution, pandering, prostitution, keeping a house of ill fame, lewd and lascivious behavior, exposing minors to harmful materials, distributing obscene materials, possession of obscene materials, transporting obscene materials, or sale or possession of a controlled substance or narcotic.

Specified sexual activities are any one or more of the following:

(1) Depiction of human genitals in a state of sexual stimulation or arousal;

(2) Acts of human masturbation, sexual intercourse, sodomy, masochism, sadism, or sadomasochism.

(3) Fondling or other erotic touching of human genitals, pubic region, buttock or female breast.

Cross reference—Rules of construction and definitions generally, § 1-2.

Sec. 11-17 Adult motion picture booths.

Each adult motion picture booth shall have a rectangular-shaped entranceway not less than two (2) feet wide and six (6) feet high. There shall be no door, curtain or other obstruction blocking or closing off any part of or all of such entranceway at any time.

Sec. 11-18 Distance requirements.

No adult bookstore, adult motion picture theater, adult motel or hotel shall be located within a one mile radius, property line to property line, of any other of the aforementioned establishments or within one thousand (1,000) feet, property line to property line, of any establishment selling beer or intoxicating liquor for consumption on the premises; hotels; or motels; public lodging houses; churches; schools; kindergartens, nursery schools, day care centers; pawnshops, pool or billiard halls, or property zoned "R-1," "R-1A," "R-2," "R-3," or "R-4" as defined in the city zoning ordinance. (

Sec. 11-19 Operating adult bookstore, adult motion picture theater or adult motel or hotel illegal without license.

It shall be unlawful for any person, partnership, corporation or any other entity to operate an adult bookstore, adult motion picture theater or adult motel or hotel within the city unless such adult bookstore, adult motion picture theater or adult motel or hotel shall have a currently valid regulatory license therefor. (

DIVISION 2. LICENSE

Sec. 11-20 Required; application, investigation required; contents of application; fee.

An annual regulatory license shall be requird for each adult bookstore, each adult motion picture theater and each adult motel and hotel. No license shall be issued until an application is made to the department which shall cause an investigation to be made to determine whether the applicant has complied with this chapter and all other requirements of this Code and of the Florida Statutes. Each application must be accompanied by a fee of two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) to cover the cost of investigation and administration. Each application must be sworn to and state the name, address and age of the applicant, or if a partnership, the names, addresses and ages of the persons who constitute such partnership, or if a corporation, the names, addresses and ages of its directors, officers and principal stockholders. Each application must also include the names, addresses and ages of all present employees of the adult bookstore or the adult motion picture theater or adult motel or hotel or if there are no employees, a statement to that effect, and a statement as to whether any interested party of the applicant has been convicted within ten (10) years of the date of application of any specified criminal act and if so, the name of such interested party, the date and place of conviction and the nature of the crime for which the interested party was convicted. Licenses issued pursuant to this article shall be in addition to and not in lieu of any occupational licenses or other licenses or permits required under this Code.

Sec. 11-21 Not to be issued without specific authorization following conviction for certain crimes.

The department shall not grant, without specific authorization from the city commission, a license or a renewal of a license to operate an adult bookstore, an adult motion picture theater or adult motel or hotel to any applicant if an interested party thereof has been convicted of a specified criminal act and such conviction is final and not on appeal within ten (10) years of the date of application. The term "conviction" shall include an adjudication of guilt on a plea of guilty or nolo contendre or the forfeiture of a bond upon a charge of crime. (Ord. 8 2A.

Sec. 11-22 Not to be issued without specific authorization to certain persons, etc., after revocation.

(a) The department shall not grant, without specific authorization from the city commission, a license to operate an adult bookstore, an adult motion picture theater, or adult motel or hotel to a person if such person was the licensee, or was an employee of the licensee, or was a partner in a partnership which was the licensee, or was an officer, director or principal stockholder of a corporation which was the licensee of an adult bookstore, an adult motion picture theater or adult motel or hotel at the time such license was revoked under the provisions of this article.

(b) The department shall not grant, without specific authorization from the city commission, a license to operate an adult bookstore, an adult motion picture theater or adult motel or hotel to a partnership if any partner thereof was a licensee, or was an employee of a licensee, or was a partner in a partnership which was the licensee, or was an officer, director or principal stockholder of a corporation which was the licensee of an adult bookstore, an adult motion picture theater or adult motel or hotel at the time such license was revoked under the provisions of this article.

(c) The department shall not grant, without specific authorization from the city commission, a license to operate an adult bookstore, an adult motion picture theater or adult motel or hotel to a corporation if any officer, director or principal stockholder thereof was a licensee, or was an employee of a licensee, or was a partner in a partnership which was the licensee, or was an officer, director or principal stockholder of a corporation which was the licensee of an adult bookstore, an adult motion picture theater or adult motel or hotel at the time such license was revoked under the provisions of this article.

Sec. 11-23 Issuance; term; renewal.

If the department determines that the applicant for a license under this division is eligible for the issuance of a license, a regulatory license shall be issued for the fiscal year beginning October first and ending September thirtieth, or a fraction thereof. A license shall be renewed upon the approval of the department after an application for renewal has been duly submitted together with a renewal application fee of one hundred dollars ($100.00). In order for the department to grant a renewal, the application for renewal and the investigation thereon must show that the applicant is eligible under the provisions hereof for the issuance of a license.

Sec. 11-24 Appeal from denial.

If the department determines that it may not issue a license to an applicant under the provisions of this division, the department shall notify the applicant of the department's intention to deny the license. Such notice shall include a copy of this article and the reason for the denial of the license. The applicant shall have the right to appeal the denial of the license to the city commission by filing with the city clerk a notice of appeal within ten (10) days of receipt by applicant of notice of intent to deny. The city commission, within fifteen (15) days of such appeal, shall hold a public hearing to determine whether issuance or renewal of the license would be detrimental to the public health, morals, safety and welfare. If the city commission determines that the issuance of the license would not be detrimental to the public health, morals, safety and welfare, the city commission shall specifically authorize the department to issue a license to the applicant and the department shall issue such license forthwith. If the city commission determines that the issuance of the license would be detrimental to the public health, morals, safety and welfare, the city commission shall so notify the applicant and the department shall not issue such license.

Sec. 15-25. Authority to revoke; grounds for revocation.

The city commission, by majority vote of those present, after a hearing as hereinafter provided, is hereby authorized to revoke any license issued under the provisions of this article under any one or more of the following circumstances if the city commission makes an affirmative finding that the continued operation of the licensed premises would be detrimental to the public health, morals, safety and welfare:

(1) If the licensee is convicted of a specified criminal act.

(2) If the licensee is a partnership, if any partner thereof is convicted of a specified criminal act.

(3) If the licensee is a corporation, if any officer, director or principal stockholder is convicted of a specified criminal act.

(4) A nuisance as defined in Florida Statutes, section 823.05 (1975) is maintained on the licensed premises.

(5) If the licensee or any employee of licensee engages in or permits on the licensed premises disorderly or indecent conduct as defined by those portions of the Florida Statutes held constitutional by applicable case law.

(6) If the licensee fails to comply with the fire prevention ordinances of the city after reasonable notice shall have been given to the licensee to eliminate or correct any condition in violation of such ordinances on the licensed premises.

(7) If the licensee fails to comply with any provision of the health ordinances of the city, the county or the state after reasonable notice shall have been given to the licensee to eliminate or correct any condition in violation of such ordinances on the licensed premises.

(8) If the licensee fails to comply with any provision of the city building code, the city electrical code, the city mechanical code or the city plumbing code after reasonable notice shall have been given to the licensee to eliminate or correct any condition in violation of such ordinances on the licensed premises.

(9) If any employee of licensee has been convicted of a specified criminal act for act(s) committed by the employee on the licensed premises while employed by the licensee.

(10) If licensee fails to comply with any provisions of this article after reasonable notice shall have been given to the licensee to eliminate or correct any condition in violation of such ordinance on the licensed premises.

(11) If the licensee fails to comply with provisions of Florida Statutes and this Code concerning licensing of operators of moving picture machines after reasonable notice shall have been given to comply with such provisions.

(12) If the licensee furnishes incorrect or incomplete information on its application for license or application for renewal of license.

Sec. 11-26 Notice and hearing concerning revocation.

Whenever the city commission shall find any of the conditions enumerated in section 18-86 to exist, it shall notify the licensee that the city commission shall hold a public hearing to determine whether the continued operation of the licensed premises is detrimental to the public health, morals, safety and welfare. Such hearing is to be held at a time and place to be specified in the notice and at a time not less than ten (10) days from the date of service of the notice. Such notice shall also list with specificity the acts or occurrence concerning which the hearing will be held.

ARTICLE IV. AUCTIONS AND AUCTIONEERS*

DIVISION 1. GENERALLY

Sec. 11-28 Definitions.

For the purposes of this article, the following words and phrases shall have the meanings respectively ascribed to them by this section:

Auction or public auction. The offering for sale or sale of any goods, wares or merchandise, livestock, vehicles of any description, personal property of whatsoever nature, or any real property or interest therein, at a public or private gathering, by public outcry and competitive bidding. The term "auction" or "public auction" shall include but not be limited to the following specific types of auctions:

(1) Furniture auction sale, wherein any new or used furniture, household goods, kitchen utensils, household appliances and such other items as are kept for sale by a furniture or allied store, are offered for sale by auction.

(2) Gift shop auction sale, wherein any of the items customarily sold or kept for sale by a gift shop, department store, notion store, etc., are offered for sale by auction.

(3) Jewelry auction sale, wherein any precious or semiprecious stones or imitations thereof (whether or not represented as genuine); watches, clocks or other time pieces, together with any works therefor; jewelry, including costume jewelry; gold, silver or plated ware; and any other merchandise usually sold or kept for sale in jewelry stores; or any china, crystal or leather goods not sold in connection with other merchandise usually or customarily sold or kept for sale by gift shops, are offered for sale by auction.

(4) Motor vehicle auction sale, wherein any automobile or other vehicle propelled by a motor, such as trucks, tractors, airplanes, etc., are offered for sale by auction.

(5) Oriental goods auction sale, wherein any rugs, furnishings or other merchandise manufactured and produced by any country commonly designated "Oriental" or purportedly manufactured and produced in such countries are offered for sale by auction.

(6) Private home furnishing auction sale, wherein the furnishings and contents of a private home are offered for sale by auction by the owner or legal representative thereof, for a period not to exceed five (5) days.

(7) Real property (real estate) auction sale, wherein any real property or interest therein, including mineral or oil leases, is offered for sale by auction.

Auctioneer. Any person who shall offer to or sell any goods, wares or merchandise; livestock; any vehicle of whatsoever kind or nature; any personal property of whatsoever kind or nature; or any real property or interest therein, at any store, stand or other place within the city, by public outcry, for gain or profit; or who shall advertise or in any way hold himself out as an "auctioneer" for public patronage; or shall receive fees or commissions for his services in such capacity.

Cross reference—Rules of construction and definitions generally, § 1-2.

Sec. 11-29 Applicability of article.

The provisions of this article shall not be applicable to auction sales conducted by trustees or referees in bankruptcy, executors, administrators, receivers or other public officers acting under judicial process; nor to the sale by the holder of personal security under a contract allowing public sale in default of payment of debt; nor to common carrier or public warehousemen selling unclaimed freight or goods, where held for freight or storage charges. (Code 1962, § 8-2)

Sec. 11-30 Bond or insurance required of auctioneers.

Every applicant for an auctioneer's license shall file with the tax collector a surety bond in the amount of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), with surety acceptable to and approved by the city attorney, conditioned that the applicant, if issued an auctioneer's license, will comply fully with all the provisions of this Code and other ordinances of the city and the statutes of the state regulating and concerning auctions and auctioneers; will render true and strict accounts of all his sales to any person employing him to make the same; and will not violate any of the provisions of this article. A liability insurance policy issued by an insurance company authorized to do business in the state, which conforms to the above requirements, may be permitted by the city attorney, in his discretion, in lieu of a bond.

Sec. 11-31. Inventory to accompany application.

There shall be attached to the application for an auction license, in duplicate, a detailed inventory, item by item, of the property, real or personal, to be sold and the quality and grade thereof, where the reasonable value of such item exceeds fifty dollars ($50.00). Such inventory shall provide the tax collector with such information as he shall deem necessary to carry out the provisions of this article. In case the licensee acquires additional articles for sale, after a license is issued, he shall file with the tax collector the information covering such additional articles of reasonable value in excess of fifty dollars ($50.00) in the same manner as above, such inventory covering additional articles to be filed every thirty (30) days during the operation of the business. Such inventory shall be supplied in the manner and form prescribed by the tax collector.

Sec. 11-32. General regulations for auction sales.

(a) Where goods are put up for sale by auction in lots, each lot is the subject of a separate contract of sale.

(b) A sale by auction is complete when the auctioneer announces its completion by the fall of the hammer or in other customary manner. Until such announcement is made, any bidder may retract his bid and the auctioneer may withdraw the goods from sale, unless the auction has been announced to be without reserve.

(c) A right to bid may be reserved expressly by or on behalf of the seller.

(d) Where notice has been given that a sale by auction is subject to a right to bid on behalf of the seller, it shall not be lawful for the seller to bid himself or to employ or induce any person to bid at such sale on behalf of the seller or knowingly to take any bid from the seller or any person employed by him. Any sale contravening this paragraph may be treated as fraudulent.

Sec. 11-33 Receipts for sales of merchandise over fifty dollars; receipts for sale of jewelry, etc.

(a) In case of the sale of goods, wares or merchandise for a sales price of fifty dollars ($50.00) or more, the licensee shall furnish to the purchaser, at the time of the payment of the purchase price, a receipt showing the item sold. A duplicate of such receipt shall be retained by the licensee. Such receipt shall provide all information as to type of merchandise sold, as listed on the inventory furnished the tax collector. Such receipt shall further state the date of sale, amount of purchase price, the amount of tax paid and the name of the purchaser. Such receipt shall be upon a printed form showing the name and identity of the licensee making such sale. The licensee shall keep a duplicate of such receipt for inspection by the tax collector or license inspector.

Sec. 11-38. Licensee or representative to be present at auction at all times.

Whenever any auction license has been issued to an applicant, it shall be the duty of the licensee or his representative to be present and remain in continuous attendance at all times while an auction sale is being conducted upon the premises and to correct immediately any false statement or misrepresentation made by an auctioneer before the bidding proceeds further. Any failure of compliance with this section shall constitute a violation of the provisions of this article by the auction licensee, as well as by the auctioneer.

DIVISION 2. AUCTIONEER'S LICENSE

Sec. 11-39 . Required; auctions to be conducted by licnesed auctioneers.

No property, either real or personal, shall be sold at auction in the city except in compliance with the provisions of this article. It shall be unlawful to sell or cause or permit to be sold at auction any property, real or personal, in the city unless such sale is conducted by an individual who has applied for and obtained an auctioneer's license from the tax collector.

Sec. 11-40 Investigation of applicant.

Before issuing an auctioneer's license to any person applying therefor, the tax collector shall refer the application to the chief of police, who shall cause such investigation of the applicants' moral character and business responsibility to be made as he deems necessary for the protection of the public good. The chief of police shall make known his findings to the tax collector within a reasonable period of time.

Sec. 11-41 Fee.

The applicant for an auctioneer's license shall pay an annual license fee, as prescribed in the license fee schedule of the city. Such license fee shall be due and payable at the time of making application and before the applicant engages in such business, and shall become due on October first of each year. Before any auction sale may be conducted, the auctioneer shall apply to the tax collector for an auction license and pay the requisite fee therefor, as prescribed in the license fee schedule of the city.

Sec. 11-42 Issuance.

The tax collector is hereby authorized to grant an auctioneer's license to any individual applying therefor on the form prescribed by the tax collector upon payment by the applicant of the fee set forth in the license schedule of the city, filing of the bond required by this article, upon the applicant applying for and securing from the police

(b) Within twenty-four (24) hours after the conclusion of a sale at auction of jewelry, a separate receipt shall be furnished by the licensee conducting such sale to the tax collector covering each item sold. Such receipt shall be a duplicate of the original delivered to the purchaser at the time of purchase. This receipt shall contain all of the information required in paragraph (a) of this section.

Sec. 11-34. Night auctions of jewelry and certain other articles prohibited.

It shall be unlawful to offer for sale at auction or sell at auction by a "jewelry auction sale" any article detailed in the definition of such sale in section 18-101 between the hours of 6:00 p.m. and 8:00 a.m. within the city.

Sec. 11-35. False representations.

It shall be unlawful for any person conducting any auction sale or his agents, servants or employees to make any false reprsentations or statements as to the ownership, character, quality or price of the property offered for sale with intent to induce any person to purchase the same.

Cross reference—Offenses against property, Ch. 20, Art. IV.

Sec. 11-36. Tag containing description of merchandise to be attached to article for sale.

No person shall offer for sale or sell at public auction within the city any jewelry, watches, precious or semiprecious stones or other articles ordinarily kept for sale by a jewelry store without first attaching a tag to such article, upon which will be clearly written the kind, quality and composition of the article for sale. Such tag or label shall remain securely attached to every article of merchandise and shall be delivered to the purchaser thereof as a true and correct description and reprsentation of the article sold, and shall be deemed prima facie evidence of intent to defraud in case such written statement is not a true and correct description and representation of such articles sold.

Sec. 11-37. Location of auctions to conform with zoning regulations; inspection by fire department.

(a) The license provided for in this article shall not be issued for any location which does not conform with the zoning laws of the city.

(b) Each location at which auction sales are to be conducted shall be first examined by the fire chief of the city or one of his representatives to determine whether the premises are safe and whether there are sufficient exits and entrances for the expected attendance. No auction sale shall be held upon any premises which have not been certified by the fire chief as being safe for use for such purposes.

Cross reference—Fire department, Ch. 11, Art. II.

person or by counsel. The commission shall determine such appeal within thirty (30) days after such hearing, and its decision thereon shall be final.

ARTICLE V. BARBER SCHOOLS*

Sec. 11-46 Definitions.

For the purpose of this article, the following words and phrases shall have the meanings respectively ascribed to them by this section:

Barber school. An institution which is authorized under the board of barber examiners to issue teachers' certificates.

Brushup course. A refresher course in barber science.

Brushup student. A person taking a refresher course in barber science.

Cross reference—Rules of construction and definitions generally, § 1-2.

Sec. 11-47. Teacher's certificate—Required.

It shall be unlawful for any person to operate and conduct a barber school within the city without first applying for and receiving from the board of examiners a teacher's certificate, to be issued as the result of the successful completion of an examination prepared and administered by the board of barber examiners.

Sec. 11-48. Same—Registration as barber prerequisite.

As a prerequisite to the issuance of a teacher's certificate, each applicant for examination for a teacher's certificate shall have been granted a license as a registered barber in the state and in the city.

Sec. 11-49. Instructors.

All barber schools registered in accordance with the provisions of this Code shall employ, on a full-time basis, a minimum of one instructor for each twenty (20) students. Each such instructor shall hold a valid teacher's certificate issued in accordance with the requirements of this article.

Sec. 11-50. Charging of fee by students prohibited.

In barber schools where a tuition fee is charged and paid for, by or on behalf of the student for the privilege of receiving instructions to qualify for the barber department of the city an identification card and upon the applicant meeting all other requirements of this article.

Sec. 11-43 Nontransferable.

No license issued under this article shall be transferable from one person to another.

Sec. 11-44. Refusal or revocation—Grounds.

(a) An auctioneer's license may be revoked by the city commission or an application for issuance of such license may be refused by the tax collector if it is determined, after due notice and hearing, that:

(1) The applicant or licensee is not an individual of good moral character and business responsibility; or

(2) The application of the applicant or licensee contains any false, fraudulent or misleading material statement; or

(3) The applicant or licensee has made any false, fraudulent or misleading material statement in the course of conducting an auction sale or in offering for sale at auction any real or personal property in the city; or

(4) The applicant or licensee has violated any of the statutes of the state relating to auctions or auctioneers; or

(5) The applicant or licensee has been convicted of any crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude; or

(6) The applicant or licensee has conducted an auction sale or offered for sale at auction any real or personal property in the city in an unlawful manner or in such a manner as to constitute a breach of the peace or a menace to the health, safety or general welfare of the public.

(b) Any conviction for a violation of this article shall automatically revoke the license under which the convicted person operated or attempted to operate. (Code 1962, § 8-8)

Sec. 11-45. Same—Right of appeal.

An applicant for a license under this division who has been denied such a license or whose license has been suspended or revoked pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall have the right of appeal from such action to the city commission. Such appeal shall be in writing and shall be filed with the city clerk. Such appeal need not be in formal language, but shall state concisely the name of the appellant, the matter complained of and the date of the denial, revocation or suspension. The city clerk shall transmit such appeal to the city commission at its next regular meeting at which time the city commission shall set a date for hearing and shall cause the city clerk to give notice of the time and place of such hearing to the appellant, who may appear in

Sec. 11-55 Definitions.

The word "canvasser" or "solicitor" as used in this division, shall mean any individual, whether a resident of the city or not, traveling either by foot, wagon, automobile, motor truck or any other type of conveyance, from place to place, from house to house or from street to street, or through use of the telephone, who is taking or attempting to take orders for sale of goods, wares, merchandise or personal property of any nature whatsoever for future delivery, or for services to be furnished or performed in the future, whether or not such individual has, carries or exposes for sale a sample of the subject of such sale or whether he is collecting advance payments on such sales or not; however, such definition shall include any person who, for himself or for another person, hires, leases, uses or occupies any building, structure, tent, railroad boxcar, boat, hotel room, lodging house, apartment, shop or any other place within the city for the sole purpose of exhibiting samples and taking orders for future delivery.

Sec. 11-56 License—Required; exemptions.

It shall be unlawful for any canvasser or solicitor to engage in such business within the city without first obtaining a license therefor, in compliance with the provisions of this division.

Sec. 11-57 Same—Application.

(a) Applicants for a license under this division shall file with the tax collector an application upon the form prescribed by the tax collector, which shall include the following information:

(1) Name and address of applicant.

(2) Purpose of activity of applicant.

(3) Method and dates of solicitation.

(4) If applicant is incorporated, the names and addresses of officers, directors and resident agent.

(5) Name of local agent or representative.

(6) A photograph of the applicant of appropriate size taken by the police department concurrent with fingerprinting.

(7) Fingerprints of applicant.

(b) In addition, applicants shall publish the information contained in said application in a newspaper of general circulation in the city, at least two (2) weeks prior to the solicitation; and proof of said publication shall be furnished the tax collector prior to the issuance of a license.

examination, it shall be unlawful for the barber schools or students to charge a fee for the services rendered to individuals upon whose person any services have been performed by the student.

Sec. 11-51 Indemnity insurance.

All barber schools organized and existing under the provisions of this article shall be bonded in an amount not less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00) as an indemnity against personal injury to the individuals upon whose persons services have been performed and conditioned upon the proper and lawful manner of conducting all business, including its methods of advertising, so as not to mislead the public.

Sec. 11-52. "Brushup" students to be distinguished from beginner students.

In the operation of barber schools within the city, a distinction shall be made between beginner students and a registered barber taking a "brushup" course in barber science.

Sec. 11-53. Charging of fee by "brushup" students prohibited.

In a barber school where a "brushup" course is being given to a registered barber in barber science, and a tuition is charged and paid by or on behalf of such registered barber for the privilege of receiving instructions to qualify for the barber examination, it shall be unlawful for such barber schools or "brushup" students to charge a fee for the services rendered by any individuals upon whose persons any services have been performed by the "brushup" student.

ARTICLE VI. CANVASSERS AND SOLICITORS*

DIVISION 1. NONCHARITABLE SOLICITATIONS

Sec. 11-54. Applicability.

The provisions of this division shall govern all noncharitable solicitations within the city.

reasonable and nondiscriminatory, or, if the fee has already been paid, shall order a refund of the amount over and above the fee so fixed. In fixing the fee to be charged, the tax collector shall have the power to base the fee upon a percentage of gross sales or any other method which will assure that the fee assessed shall be uniform with that assessed on businesses of like nature, so long as the amount assessed does not exceed the fees as prescribed by subsection (a) of this section. Should the tax collector determine the gross sales measure of the fee to be the fair basis, he may require the applicant or licensee to submit, either at the time of termination of his business in the city or at the end of each three-month period, a sworn statement of the gross sales and pay the amount of fee therefor; however, no additional fee during any one calendar year shall be required after the licensee shall have paid an amount equal to the annual license fee as prescribed in subsection (a) of this section.

Sec. 11-61 Same—Disclosure.

(a) As used in this section, "person" includes any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, association or other organization.

(b) It is unlawful for any person to solicit a sale or order for sale of goods or services at the residence of a prospective buyer, in person or by means of telephone, the mails or otherwise, without clearly, affirmatively and expressly revealing at the time the person initially contacts the prospective buyer, and before making any other statement or asking the prospective buyer any other questions, all of the following:

(1) The identity of the person making the solicitation.

(2) The legal name of the person represented by the person making the solicitation.

(3) That the purpose of the contract is to effect a sale.

(4) The kind of goods or services being offered for sale.

(5) Method of distribution of proceeds of said sale.

(c) In addition to any other penalties or remedies applicable to violations of this section, any contract entered into as a result of a solicitation in violation of this section is void; and the buyer shall be entitled to restitution of any money paid for the purchase of goods or services under any such contract.

(d) The city shall issue to each applicant at the time of the issuance of an occupational license, a badge which shall contain the name and a photograph of the licensee. Said badge shall, during the time such licensee is engaged in soliciting, be worn constantly by the licensee on the front of his outer garment in such a way as to be conspicuous.

Sec. 11-58 . Same—Investigation of applicant.

Upon receipt of an application for a license under this division by the tax collector, the original thereof shall be referred to the chief of police, who shall cause such investigation of the applicant's business and moral character to be made as he deems necessary for the protection of the public good.

Sec. 11-59 Same—Issuance or denial following investigation.

(a) If, as a result of the investigation required by section [illegible], the applicant's character or business responsibility is found to be unsatisfactory, the chief of police shall endorse on the application for a license his disapproval and his reasons therefor, and return the application to the tax collector, who shall notify the applicant that his application is disapproved and that no license will be issued.

(b) If, as a result of such investigation, the character and business responsibility of the applicant are found to be satisfactory, the chief of police shall endorse on the application his approval and return the application to the tax collector. who shall, upon payment of the prescribed license fee, deliver to the applicant his license.

Sec. 11-60 Same—Fees.

(a) The license fee which shall be charged by the city for any license issued under this division shall be for each person:

(1) Five dollars ($5.00) for five (5) days or less;

(2) Ten dollars ($10.00) for ten (10) days or less;

(3) Thirty dollars ($30.00) for more than ten (10) days or for one (1) month; or

(4) Two hundred dollars ($200.00) per year.

(b) None of the license fees provided for in this section shall be so applied as to occasion an undue burden upon interstate commerce. In any case where a license fee is believed, by a licensee or an applicant for a license, to place an undue burden upon such commerce, he may apply to the tax collector for an adjustment of the fee, so that it shall not be discriminatory, unreasonable or unfair as to such commerce. Such application may be made before, at or within six (6) months after payment of the prescribed license fee. The applicant or licensee shall, by affidavit and supporting testimony, show his method of business and the gross volume or estimated gross volume of business and such other information as the tax collector may deem necessary in order to determine the extent, if any, of such undue burden on such commerce. The tax collector shall then conduct an investigation, comparing the applicant's or licensee's business with other businesses of like nature and shall make findings of fact from which he shall determine whether the fee fixed by this division is unfair, unreasonable or discriminatory as to the applicant's or licensee's business, and shall fix, as the license fee for the applicant or licensee, an amount that is fair, produce his solicitor's or canvasser's license and to enforce the provisions of this article against any person found to be violating the same.

DIVISION 2. CHARITABLE SOLICITATIONS

Sec. 11-67. Applicability.

The provisions of this division shall govern all charitable solicitations within the city.

Sec. 11-68. Purpose.

Any person or organization desiring to exercise their constitutional rights of freedom of speech and freedom of religion by soliciting for funds within the city shall be protected in such activities providing they do not interfere with the free flow of vehicle and pedestrian traffic, unduly interfere with the rights of other citizens or attempt to perpetrate a fraud on members of the public. This division is hereby declared to be necessary for the accomplishment of the following:

(1) To ensure that religious and charitable organizations are permitted to proselytize or solicit funds within the city.

(2) To ensure that persons seeking to exercise constitutional freedom of expression can communicate effectively within the city.

(3) To ensure adequate nearby police facilities for the protection of persons exercising their constitutional freedoms.

(4) To protect persons within the city from repeated unsought communications or encounters with solicitors which might constitute harrassment or intimidation.

(5) To protect persons within the city from fraudulent solicitations.

(6) To ensure the free and orderly flow of pedestrian and vehicle traffic within the city.

Sec. 11-69. Definitions.

Whenever used in this division, the following words shall have the meanings herein ascribed unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

(1) Board means the charitable solicitation advisory board.

(2) Charitable means and includes the words "benevolent," "church," "civic," "educational," "fraternal," "philanthropic," "religious" or "welfare," either actual or purported.

(3) Contributions means and includes the words "clothing," "food," "money," "pledge," "property," "subscription" or anything of value and also donations under the guise of loans of money or property.

Sec. 11-62. Same—Revocation.

Licenses issued under the provisions of this division may be revoked by the city commission after due notice in writing and hearing, for any one of the following causes:

(1) Fraud, misrepresentation or false statements contained in the application for a license.
(2) Fraud, misrepresentation or false statements made in the course of carrying on his business as solicitor or canvasser.
(3) Any violation of any of the provisions of this division or other provisions of this Code or other ordinances of the city.
(4) Conviction of any crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude.
(5) Conducting the business of soliciting or of canvassing in an unlawful manner or in such a manner as to constitute a breach of the peace or a menace to the health, safety or general welfare of the public.

Sec. 11-63. Same—Exhibition upon request.

Solicitors and canvassers are required to exhibit their licenses at the request of any citizen.

Sec. 11-64. Appeal from action of tax collector, chief of police or city commission.

Any person aggrieved by the action or the actions of the chief of police or the tax collector in the denial of a license under this division, the action of the tax collector in the assessing of the fee, as provided in this division, or the action of the city commission in revoking the license issued under this division, shall have the right of appeal to the city commission. Such appeal shall be taken by filing with the city clerk, within fourteen (14) days after notice of the action complained of has been mailed to the appellant, a written statement setting forth fully the grounds for the appeal. The city commission shall set a time and place for a hearing on such appeal, within a reasonable time; and notice of such hearing shall be given to the appellant. The decision and order of the city commission on such appeal shall be final and conclusive.

Sec. 11-65. Record of violations.

The chief of police shall report to the tax collector all convictions for violation of this division, and the tax collector shall maintain a record for each license issued and record the reports of violation therein.

Sec. 11-66. Enforcement of article.

It shall be the duty of any police officer of the city to require any person seen soliciting or canvassing and who is not known by such officer to be duly licensed, to

(4) A list of all fund-raising events to be held during the year, which year shall run from October first through September thirtieth.

(5) A list of the names and addresses of the person or persons who will be directly managing these fund-raising events.

(6) The total amount of funds proposed to be raised.

(7) The use or disposition to be made of any funds raised and the name of the person or persons who decide or control how and for what purpose said funds shall be used or disposed of, and how funds previously raised or collected in the city were used or disposed of.

(8) A statement showing the need for the contributions to be solicited.

(9) A description of the method or methods to be used in conducting the solicitations.

(10) The dates and hours when such solicitations will be made.

(11) A financial statement for the last preceding fiscal year of any funds collected for charitable purposes by the applicant, said statement giving the amount of money so raised, together with the cost of raising it, and the final distribution thereof.

(12) A statement of the extent of the charitable work being done or to be done by the applicant.

(13) A statement to the effect that if a permit is granted, it will not be used or represented in any way as an endorsement by the city or by any department or officer thereof.

(14) Proof that applicant is operated not for profit. A tax-exempt certificate issued by the state or federal government shall be deemed sufficient proof that the applicant is not operated for profit.

Sec. 11-72 Temporary permit.

A party who is making his first request for a permit under this division may request a temporary permit on a one-time basis. Such permit shall be issued by the tax collector along with temporary badges and shall be good for a maximum period of sixty (60) days. All parties soliciting pursuant to such temporary permit shall comply with all the requirements of section 18-189.

Sec. 11-73. Fees.

(a) At the time of filing an application for a permit, a nonrefundable fee of thirty-five dollars ($35.00) shall be paid to the tax collector to cover the cost of investigating the application.

(b) There will be a nonrefundable fee of five dollars ($5.00) for amending an approved application.

(4) Person means any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, association, society, organization or league, and includes any trustee, receiver, assignee, agent or other similar representative.

(5) Solicitation means the request, directly or indirectly, of money, credit, property, financial assistance or other thing of value or the representation that same will be used for a charitable purpose. A solicitation shall be deemed to have taken place when the request is made, whether or not the person making same receives any contribution referred to in this article. These words shall also mean and include the following methods of securing same:

(a) Any oral or written request;

(b) The sale of, offer to sell or attempt to sell, any article, service, tag, tickets, emblem, publication, advertisement, subscription, membership or other thing, whether or not of value, in whole or in part, for charitable purposes;

(c) The making of any announcement to or through the local press or other media of public communication, concerning an appeal, drive or campaign to which the public is requested to make a contribution for any charitable purposes connected therewith.

(6) Tax collector means the tax collector of the city.

Sec. 11-70. Permit.

No person shall solicit contributions for any charitable purpose within the city without a permit pursuant to this division authorizing such solicitation; however, the provisions of this division shall not apply to any established organization operating wholly or partially for religious or charitable purposes, if the solicitations are conducted only among the members of such organization by other members or officers thereof, voluntarily and without remuneration for making such solicitations, or if the solicitations are in the form of collections or contributions at the regular assemblies or services of such established organizations.

Sec. 11-71. Application for permit.

Application for a permit required by this division shall be made to the tax collector upon the appropriate forms. Such application shall be sworn to or affirmed and filed with the tax collector and shall contain the following:

(1) The name and address of the principal office of the person applying for the permit, including both local and nonlocal offices.

(2) If the applicant is not an individual, the names and addresses of the applicant's principal offices and board of directors or equivalent.

(3) The purpose for which such solicitation is to be made.

(c) Any permit issued pursuant to this division shall not be transferable or assignable.

(d) Said permit shall contain a complete list of the dates and times of solicitation and a complete list of the names and addresses of the person or persons who will be

(c) Should the applicant or his authorized representative fail to appear as required by this section the hearing shall be postponed. The postponement shall not be longer than thirty (30) days after the applicant requests a further hearing.

(d) Should the board fail to meet within thirty (30) days of the application, the requirements of a public hearing shall be waived.

Sec. 11-77 Report of the board.

Within five (5) days after the public hearing, the board shall issue a report as to whether the proposed solicitation complies with the purposes of this division as enumerated in section 18-177. Should the board make a finding that the solicitation does not comply, they shall so state in a written report to the city commission. Said report shall enumerate the reasons that the board feels that the solicitation would not comply with the purposes of this division.

Sec. 11-78 City commission action.

The city commission, upon a finding of noncompliance by the board pursuant to section 18-185, may, by resolution, request the city attorney to file a suit to enjoin the proposed solicitation after holding a public hearing on the advisability of such action.

Sec. 11-79 Granting a permit.

(a) Within ten (10) days of the required public hearing before the board, the tax collector shall issue a permit to the applicant. Neither a finding of noncompliance by the board nor a resolution by the city commission to file suit to enjoin the solicitation shall relieve the tax collector of the duty to issue a permit.

(b) A permit may only be withheld where the following is determined to exist:

(1) That one (1) or more of the statements on the application is incorrect; provided that the applicant has been given the opportunity to correct or amend his application and refuses to do so.

(2) The applicant has refused to provide the information requested in the application.

Sec. 11-80 Contents of permits; terms; expiration; nontransferable.

(a) Permits issued pursuant to this division shall state the name and address of the person to whom the permit is issued, the number of the permit, the date issued and the dates within which the permit holder may solicit.

(b) No permit shall have a term in excess of one (1) year from date of issuance by the tax collector. This term shall run from October first through September thirtieth. Any permit issued after October first will be valid only through September thirtieth.

(c) There will be a nonrefundable fee of fifteen dollars ($15.00) for reviewing and renewal of an approved application.

Sec. 11-74. Charitable solicitation advisory board.

(a) There is hereby created a charitable solicitation advisory board which shall consist of five (5) members, appointed by the mayor. Among its members shall be a clergyman and an accountant. Members shall be appointed to serve three-year terms, with two (2) of the original appointees serving three-year terms, two (2) serving two-year terms and one (1) serving a one-year term. Thereafter all terms shall be for three (3) years.

(b) The board shall hold a regular meeting each month.
12-3-79)

Sec. 11-75. Investigation of applicant.

Upon the filing of a completed application form and the paying of the fee, the tax collector shall submit said application to the charitable solicitation advisory board, which shall examine said application and shall conduct an investigation, which may include a request of any city officer or department head to assist it in such investigation. The board shall consider the following criteria in regard to its investigation:

(1) Whether all of the statements made in the application are true and correct.

(2) Whether the proposed solicitation complies with the purposes of this division as enumerated in section 18-177.

(3) Whether any pertinent facts have been withheld from the board by the applicant.

Sec. 11-76. Public hearing.

Within forty-five (45) days of the time the application was filed, the board shall hold a public hearing, duly noticed, in aid of the board's investigation of the application.

(a) At the required public hearing, all interested persons, including the applicant, shall have the right to testify and introduce evidence relevant to the proposed solicitation.

(b) The applicant or his authorized representative must be present at said meeting to answer all questions relevant to his application. (At no time shall the applicant be required to reveal the name of any member of their organization that is not directly involved in the proposed solicitation.) Where the application is only for renewal of a permit, however, the applicant or his authorized representative is not required to be so present at said meeting unless the board requests such presence.

(5) All solicitors shall immediately cease all solicitation activities directed at an individual where such individual has indicated his/her unwillingness to listen to the solicitor, make a donation or accept any handbill, flower or other object offered by the solicitor.

(6) All solicitors are required to carry a copy of the application for permit required by this division and produce the same upon the request of any party.

Sec. 11-83 Inspection of books and records.

Upon request of either the charitable solicitation advisory board or the tax collector, the holder of a permit for a charitable solicitation shall make available for inspection by any person so designated in writing all of the permit holder's books, records and papers, at any reasonable time while the permit is in effect or after it has expired.

Sec. 11-84 Report at conclusion of charitable solicitation.

All persons issued permits for charitable solicitations shall furnish to the tax collector, within sixty (60) days after the solicitation has been completed, a report and financial statement showing the amount raised by the solicitation, the amount expended in collecting such funds, and the disposition of the balance of the funds collected by the solicitation.

Sec. 11-85 Accounting system.

No person shall solicit any contribution for any charitable purpose without maintaining a system of accounting whereby all donations and all disbursements are entered upon the books or records of such person's treasurer or other financial officer.

Sec. 11-86 Penalty.

Failure to comply with any section of this article shall be deemed a violation of this Code, punishable by up to a five hundred dollar ($500.00) fine and/or sixty (60) days in the county jail.

managing these solicitations, as approved by the board. These permits will be valid only for said events and said individuals.

(e) Each solicitor, including managers, shall be required to obtain an identification badge from the police department, except that children under the age of thirteen (13) years are not required to obtain identification badges. Such badge shall contain the name of the solicitor as well as the name and address of the organization he represents.

Sec. 11-81. Amendments to application; additional solicitation.

(a) When an applicant has previously received a permit for all planned solicitation during the year and desires to schedule an additional solicitation which has not been approved, he has two (2) alternatives:

(1) Provided that the managers of this added solicitation were considered on the original application, said solicitation can be approved by submitting the dates, times and method of solicitation to the tax collector, who will submit this information to the board for consideration at its next regularly scheduled meeting.

(2) If the managers of said solicitation were not considered on the original application, the applicant must submit the names and addresses of the person or persons who will be managing said solicitation and the dates, times and method of solicitation to the tax collector, who will submit this information to the board for consideration at its next regularly scheduled meeting.

(b) The information provided for under (a)(1) and (a)(2) shall be considered as an amendment to the approved application. If the applicant desires to schedule the solicitation before the next scheduled meeting of the board, he can petition the city commission to approve only that solicitation and/or the person or persons who will be directly managing said solicitation.

Sec. 11-82. Restrictions on behavior.

In conducting solicitations:

(1) Each solicitor shall wear an identification badge issued by the city.

(2) No solicitor may in any way obstruct, delay or interfere with the free movements of any person against that person's will; or seek to coerce or physically disturb any other person.

(3) No solicitor may in any way obstruct, delay or interfere with vehicular traffic within the city.

(4) No solicitor may engage in the physical contact of touching or pinning a flower or other object upon a prospective donor unless such donor has consented to such contact or already agreed to make a contribution.

ARTICLE VII. DETECTIVES*

DIVISION 1. GENERALLY

Sec. 11-87. Definition.

For the purpose of this article, the term "private detective" shall mean any person who accepts employment for hire, fee or reward to furnish or supply information as to the personal character or actions or identity of any person or as to the character or kind of business or occupation of any person. The term shall not include, within its meaning, a private investigator employed exclusively for one employer in connection with a business of a collection agency; nor shall it include a detective or officer belonging to the law enforcement agencies of the United States or of any state, county or city.

Cross reference—Rules of construction and definitions generally, § 1-2.

Sec. 11-88. Standards applicable to employees.

All employees of any person having or applying for a license under this article shall meet and be subject to all regulations of this article.

Sec. 11-89. Promulgation of regulations by chief of police.

The chief of police shall have the authority to enact and enforce reasonable rules and regulations for the operation of private detectives in the interest of public safety, morals and welfare, and to effectuate the general purpose of this article.

Sec. 11-90. Impersonation of police officers.

No private detective licensed under this article shall impersonate or hold himself out as a peace officer of any state, county or city; nor shall a private detective operate or permit to be operated a motor vehicle with a siren, blinker light or with any insignia thereon bearing likeness to the insignia used by peace officers of any state, county or city.

Sec. 11-91. Future licenses barred after violation of article.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this article in addition to any penalties imposed under section 1-9, shall be forever barred from obtaining a license under this article.

Sec. 11-92 Reserved

DIVISION 2. LICENSE

Sec. 11-93. Required.

No person shall operate as a private detective in the city without first obtaining a license therefor from the tax collector.

Sec. 11-94. Private detectives not located within city.

Occasional and isolated inquiries, investigations or surveillances conducted within the city by private detectives who are located outside the city will not be considered as doing business in this city, and such persons need not apply for a license under this division. However, all private detectives not licensed by the city are required to register with and secure an identification card from the police department before conducting any operation within the city.

Sec. 11-95. Identification card and certificate of competency prerequisite to issuance.

Before any license for a private detective may be issued, the applicant shall first present to the tax collector the following:

(1) An identification card and certificate from the chief of police that he has no past record which, in the opinion of the chief of police, would render him unsuitable to be placed in a position of great public and private trust entering into and having charge of the property and lives of the citizens of the city.

(2) A certificate of competency from the chief of police, showing the applicant has successfully passed a written examination, given by the chief of police or under his supervision, and which shall be equal to the police sergeant's examination, as given by the personnel department of the city.

Sec. 11-96 Action on application by chief of police; notice of rejection.

The chief of police shall act upon the application for a private detective's license within a reasonable period of time. If the chief of police does not approve the application, he shall mail to the applicant a notice of his action, stating the reasons for his denial thereof.

Sec. 11-97. Appeal from action of chief of police.

Any person aggrieved by the action of the chief of police in denying the application for a license under this division shall have the right to appeal to the city commission. Such appeal shall be taken by filing with the city clerk, within fourteen (14) days after notice of the decision by the chief of police has been mailed to such applicant, a written statement setting forth the grounds for the appeal. The city commission shall set the time and place for a hearing on such appeal, and due notice thereof shall be given the appellant. The decision of the city commission on such appeal shall be final.

Sec. 11-98 . Fee.

A license shall be issued by the tax collector to an approved applicant for a license under this division upon payment of a license fee prescribed by the license schedule of the city.

Sec. 11-99 Posting; same to be carried on person.

Licensees under this division shall cause a certificate of their license to be displayed at all times in a conspicuous place in or upon their place of business described in such license. The licensee shall carry on his person at all times, when performing services as a private detective, a certificate of the license issued under this division.

Sec. 11-100 Renewal.

The tax collector shall issue renewal licenses to all licensees under this chapter whose licenses have not been suspended at the time such licenses have expired, upon payment of the requisite license fee therefor.

Sec. 11-101 Suspension and revocation.

Licenses issued under this division shall be subject to revocation or suspension by the city commission for violation of any of the provisions of this article or misconduct by the licensee or his employees, after due notice and an opportunity to be heard has been given the licensee. The decision of the city commission in this instance shall be final. The city clerk shall immediately notify any licensee, by personal service, of such suspension or revocation.

Sec. 11-102 Reserved

ARTICLE VIII. MASSEURS, MASSEUSES AND MASSAGE ESTABLISHMENTS*

Sec. 11-103 Purpose and intent.

(a) It is hereby declared to be the purpose and intent of this article to protect the citizens of the city from harm from the fraudulent and deceptive practices of persons offering massage treatment and from massage treatment by unregistered and unlicensed persons.

(b) Section 480.026, Florida Statutes, states that municipalities may regulate massage practice within their jurisdiction but that regulation shall not exceed the powers of the state under chapter 480 or be inconsistent therewith. (Code 1962, § 9-21;

It shall be unlawful for any person:

(1) To own, manage or operate any massage school or establishment unless continuous hot and cold running water be provided therein;

(2) To use upon one patron a towel that has been used upon another person, unless the towel has been relaundered;

(3) Not to provide the headrest on each table with a relaundered towel or sheet, or clean paper towel for each patron;

(4) For any masseur or masseuse to continue to practice while such person has an infectious, contagious or communicable disease;

(5) To own, manage or operate a massage school or massage establishment, unless the same shall have been equipped with a massage table, or tables, from twenty (20) inches to twenty-five (25) inches in width, twenty-four (24) to twenty-seven (27) inches in height, and sixty (60) inches to seventy (70) inches in length.

(6) To give cabinet baths, unless such school or establishment shall be equipped with shower baths.

Sec. 11-110 Revocation of occupational licenses.

The occupational license issued by the city shall be revoked if the Florida Board of Massage certificate of registration and license of a masseur, masseuse or apprentice or school of massage is revoked, suspended or annulled upon any one or more of the following grounds; or if the sanitary requirements under this article are not complied with and met:

(1) That the registrant is guilty of fraud in the practice of massage, or fraud or deceit in his admission to the practice of massage;

(2) That the registrant has been convicted in a court of competent jurisdiction of a felony. The conviction of a felony shall be the conviction of any offense, which, if committed within the state, would constitute a felony under the laws thereof;

(3) That the registrant is engaged in the practice of massage under a false or assumed name, or is impersonating another practitioner of a like or different name;

(4) That the registrant is addicted to the habitual use of intoxicating liquors, narcotics or stimulants to such an extent as to incapacitate him or her for the performance of his or her professional duties;

(5) That the registrant is guilty of untrue, fraudulent, misleading or deceptive advertising;

(6) That the registrant is grossly ignorant, or guilty of wilful negligence in the practice of massage, or has been guilty of employing, allowing or permitting any unlicensed or unregistered person to perform any work constituting the practice of massage as defined in section 480.01(1)(a) and (b), Florida Statutes, in his or her massage establishment or massage school;

(7) That the registrant is a person of immoral character;

(8) That said registrant has violated any provisions of chapter 480, Florida Statutes.

(9) That the registrant is guilty of identifying himself or herself as a member of the branch of the healing arts by the use of any mark, sign, advertisement, words, letters, abbreviations, or insignia indicating or implying such or who in any other way, orally, in writing or in print directly or by implication represents himself or herself as such, unless so registered in Florida by such other regulatory agency or board governing that particular profession.

(10) That the registered masseur or masseuse allows his certificate of registration to be displayed in a place of business which he does not own or operate or in which he is not employed to practice massage.

Sec 11-111. Revocation of apprentice's certificate.

The certificate of an apprentice shall be revoked if he or she violates any of the provisions of chapter 480, Florida Statutes.

Sec. 11-112 Re-examination required upon failure to renew registration for two consecutive years.

Any registrant who does not renew his or her registration license for two (2) consecutive years must take the examination as prescribed for an applicant to become a registered operator and to comply with all the provisions of this article applicable to any applicant to become a registrant.

Sec. 11-115 Records to be kept.

(a) Every pawnbroker or other person described in section 18-266 shall keep a record, in which shall be entered, at the time of purchasing or receiving any personal property, the following:

(1) The name of the person from whom the property was purchased or received and his place of residence.

(2) A list of all personal property purchased by or pledged or mortgaged to him, which shall contain an accurate description of such property. Each licensee under this article shall make a daily report to the police department of all such purchases.

(3) The estimated value of each article described in subparagraph (2) of paragraph (a) of this section.

(4) The amount paid, advanced or loaned for each article described in subparagraph (2) of paragraph (a) of this section.

(5) The time of the transaction and the time when such article is to be redeemed or repurchased.

(6) What, if any, mortgage or bill of sale was taken or receipt of pawn ticket was given.

(7) When and by whom the article was repurchased or redeemed.

(8) When, to whom and how the article was disposed of, if not repurchased or redeemed.

(b) The license required by this article and the information required to be kept, as hereinabove detailed, shall be open to inspection by any member of the police department at any time.

Sec. 11-116 Licensee to deliver memorandum at time article is pawned or mortgaged.

Every licensee under this article shall, at the time of each loan, deliver to the person pawning or mortgaging any article or goods a memorandum or note, signed by him, containing the substance of the entry required to be made in his records. No charge shall be made by any licensee for such entry, memorandum or note.

Sec. 11-117 Sale of pawned or mortgaged articles.

No licensee under this article shall sell any pawned, pledged or mortgaged article until the same shall have remained six (6) months in his possession after the time for the payment of the amount loaned has expired. Due notice of such sale shall be given the original owner, in writing, at least five (5) days before such sale.

Sec. 11-118

DIVISION 2. LICENSE

Sec. 11-119 Required; regular merchant's license.

(a) All pawnbrokers or persons who receive actual possession of personal property as security for loans with or without a mortgage or bill of sale thereon within the city shall first obtain a license therefor. It shall be unlawful for any such persons to operate within the city without such license.

(b) Pawnbrokers selling other than articles taken on pledge or mortgage must take out a regular merchant's license in addition to the license required by paragraph (a) of this section.

Sec. 11-120. Action by chief of police—Generally.

An applicant for a license under this article shall first secure an identification card from the police department and the approval of the chief of police as to his character and business integrity

Sec. 11-121 Same—Appeal.

Any person aggrieved by the decision of the chief of police in regard to the denial of application for a license under this article, as provided in section 18-267, shall have the right to appeal to the city commission. Such appeal shall be taken by filing with the city clerk, within fourteen (14) days after notice of the decision of the chief of police has been mailed to such person's last-known address, a written statement setting forth the grounds for the appeal. The city commission shall set the time and place of a hearing on such appeal. Notice of such hearing shall be given to such person in the same manner as provided in section 18-270. The decision and order of the city commission on such appeal shall be final.

Sec. 11-122. Fee.

Every pawnbroker or other person mentioned in section 18-266 shall pay an annual license fee prescribed by the license schedule of the city, which fee shall be paid in full in advance. There shall be no proration of such fee.

Sec. 11-123. Revocation.

(a) Licenses issued under this article may be revoked by the city commission after due notice and hearing, for any one of the following causes:

(1) Any fraud, misrepresentation or false statement contained in the application for the license.

(2) Any fraud, misrepresentation or false statement made in connection with the conduct of the business of pawnbroker or other person mentioned in section 18-266.

(3) Any violation of this article.

(4) Conviction of the licensee of any felony or of a misdemeanor involving immoral turpitude.

Sec. 11-128 Use of streets.

No peddler shall have an exclusive right to any location in the public streets, nor shall any peddler be permitted a stationary location, nor shall he be permitted to operate in any congested area where his operations might impede or inconvenience the public. For the purpose of this chapter, the judgment of a police officer of the city, exercised in good faith, shall be deemed conclusive as to whether the area is congested or the public is impeded or inconvenienced.

Cross reference—Streets, sidewalks and public places, Ch. 26.

Sec. 11-129 Records of licenses and violations.

The chief of police shall report to the tax collector all convictions for violations of this article. The tax collector shall maintain a record of each license issued and record the reports of violations therein.

Sec. 11-130 Enforcement of article.

It shall be the duty of any police officer of the city to require any person seen peddling, and who is not known by such officer to be duly licensed, to produce his peddler's license and to enforce the provisions of this article against any person found to be violating the same.

Sec. 11-131 Reserved

DIVISION 2. LICENSE

Sec. 11-131 Required.

It shall be unlawful for any peddler to engage in such business within the city without first obtaining a license therefor in compliance with the provisions of this division. Such license is nontransferable.

Sec. 11-132 Application; identification card.

Applicants for a license under this division shall file with the tax collector a sworn application upon a form prescribed by the tax collector. Applicants shall also secure an identification card from the police department.

Sec. 11-133 Investigation of applicant; issuance or refusal of license—Generally.

(a) Upon receipt of the application for a license under this division by the tax collector, the tax collector shall forthwith forward the original thereof to the chief of police, who shall cause such investigation of the applicant's business and moral character to be made as he shall deem necessary for the protection of the public good.

(b) If, as a result of such investigation, the applicant's character or business responsibility is found to be unsatisfactory, the chief of police shall endorse on such application his disapproval and his reasons therefor, and return the application to the tax collector, who shall promptly notify the applicant in writing that his application is disapproved and that no license will be issued.

(c) If, as a result of such investigation, the character and business responsibility of the applicant are found to be satisfactory, the chief of police shall endorse on the application his approval and return such application to the tax collector, who shall, upon payment of the prescribed license fee, deliver to the applicant a license.

Sec. 11-134 Same—Appeal from action of chief of police.

Any person aggrieved by the action of the chief of police in the denial of a license, as provided in section 18-298, shall have the right of appeal to the city commission. Such appeal shall be taken by filing with the city clerk, within fourteen (14) days after the notice of the action complained of has been mailed to such person's last known address, a written statement setting forth fully the grounds for the appeal. The city commission shall set a time and place of a hearing on such appeal and notice of such hearing shall be given to the appellant in the same manner as provided in section 18-304. The decision and order of the city commission on such appeal shall be final and conclusive.

Sec. 11-135 Fees.

(a) The license fee which shall be charged by the city for any license issued under this chapter shall be as follows:

(1) Fifteen dollars ($15.00) per week, thirty dollars ($30.00) per month or two hundred dollars ($200.00) per year for each person proposing to peddle on foot.

(3) Fifteen dollars ($15.00) per week, thirty dollars ($30.00) per month or two hundred dollars ($200.00) per year for each person proposing to peddle from a wagon, motor vehicle, railroad car or other vehicle conveyance.

(4) Ten dollars ($10.00) per week, twenty dollars ($20.00) per month or seventy-five dollars ($75.00) per year for each helper or assistant to those using vehicles, which helpers must likewise apply for and secure a license as required by this division for peddlers.

(b) No fee shall be required of one selling products of grove, farm or orchard actually produced by the seller.

Sec. 11-136. Procedure for setting fees when fees are contended to be undue burden on interstate commerce.

(a) None of the license fees provided for by this division shall be so applied as to occasion an undue burden upon interstate commerce. In any case where a license fee is believed by a licensee or applicant for license to place an undue burden upon such commerce, he may apply to the manager or his representative for an adjustment of the fee so that it shall not be discriminatory, unreasonable, or unfair as to such commerce.

(b) Such application may be made before, at, or within six (6) months after payment of the prescribed license fee. The applicant shall, by affidavit and supporting testimony, show his method of business and the gross volume or estimated gross volume of business and such other information as the city manager or his representative may deem necessary in order to determine the extent, if any, of such undue burden on such commerce.

(c) The city manager or his representative shall then conduct an investigation, comparing the applicant's business with other businesses of like nature and shall make findings of fact from which he shall determine whether the fee fixed by this division is unfair, unreasonable or discriminatory as to applicant's business and shall fix as the license fee for the applicant, an amount that is fair, reasonable and nondiscriminatory, or if the fee has already been paid, shall order a refund of the amount over and above the fee so fixed. In fixing the fee to be charged, the city manager or his representative shall have the power to base the fee upon a percentage of gross sales, or any other method which will assure that the fee assessed shall be uniform with that assessed on businesses of like nature, so long as the amount assessed does not exceed the fees as prescribed by section 18-300. Should the city manager or his representative determine the gross sales measure of the fee to be the fair basis, he may require the applicant to submit, either at the time of termination of applicant's business in the city, or at the end of each three (3) month period, a sworn statement of the gross sales and pay the amount of fee therefor; provided that, no additional fee during any one calendar year shall be required after the licensee shall have paid an amount equal to the annual license as prescribed in section 18-300.

Sec. 11-137 Exhibition.

Peddlers shall exhibit their licenses issued under this division at all times upon the request of any citizen.

Sec. 11-138 Revocation—Grounds.

Licenses issued under the provisions of this division may be revoked by the city commission, after due notice in writing and a hearing, for any one of the following causes:

(1) Fraud, misrepresentation or false statement contained in the application for a license.

(2) Fraud, misrepresentation or false statement made in the course of carrying on his business as a peddler.

(3) Any violation of any of the provisions of this division.

(4) Conviction of any crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude.

(5) Conducting the business of peddling in an unlawful manner or in such a manner as to constitute a breach of the peace or a menace to the health, safety or general welfare of the public.

Sec. 11-139 Same—Notice of hearing.

Notice of the hearing for revocation of a license under this division shall be given in writing, setting forth specifically the grounds of complaint and the time and place of hearing. Such notice shall be mailed by the city clerk to the licensee at his last-known address at least five (5) days prior to the date set for hearing.

ARTICLE XI. PERSONAL ESCORTS, GUIDES OR DATING SERVICES

Sec. 11-141 Purpose and intent.

It is hereby declared to be the purpose and intent of this article to protect the citizens of the city from harm from the fraudulent and deceptive practices of persons offering personal and social escort guide and dating service by unlicensed persons.

Sec. 11-142 Definitions.

As used in this article, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated:

Dating service or agency is an organization or sole proprietorship which provides an escort or guide as defined herein.

Personal escort is a person who offers his or her services for profit to accompany one person to certain social, entertainment or cultural places or events, who holds himself or herself out for such service or operates through a dating service or agency.

Personal guide is a person who offers his or her services for profit to accompany one person to certain social, entertainment or cultural places or events, who holds himself or herself out for such service or operates through a dating service or agency.

Cross reference—Rules of construction and definitions generally, § 1-2.

Sec. 11-143 Personal escorts, personal guides and dating service employees to be licensed.

It shall be unlawful for any personal and social escort, guide or dating service employee who engages in the practice and occupation of accompanying persons for the purpose of escorting, guiding or dating and is for hire being compensated for this for a fee to engage in the practice or occupation without first obtaining an occupational license pursuant to this chapter and section 18-50.

Sec. 11-144 Requisites for obtaining an occupational license within the city.

(a) All persons applying for an occupational license for personal and social escort, guide or dating service shall file proof of physical examination including a Wasserman test, signed by a regularly practicing physician, declaring such person free from any contagious, infectious or communicable disease, such examination having taken place within the preceding thirty (30) days prior to applying for a new or renewal occupational license.

(b) All persons applying for an occupational license for a personal and social escort guide or dating service shall file along with the application for an occupational license an original copy of their fingerprints to become a permanent record in their files, and the application along with the file shall be sent to the chief of police for the city for his signature.

Sec. 11-145 Revocation of occupational licenses.

The occupational license of the city shall be revoked for any of the following:

(1) The registrant is guilty of deception or fraud in the practice of personal and social escorting, guiding and dating service.

(2) The licensee has been convicted in a court of competent jurisdiction of a felony. The conviction of a felony shall be the conviction of any offense which, if committed within the state, would constitute a felony under the laws thereof.

(3) The licensee is a person of immoral character.

ARTICLE XII. SECONDHAND DEALERS

Sec. 11-147. Daily reports to be made to chief of police; information required; oath.

All dealers in secondhand automobiles, furniture, jewelry, clothing and other goods, wares, merchandise and materials operating within the city shall file with the chief of police, each day, a daily report of all secondhand automobiles, furniture, jewelry, clothing and all other secondhand goods, wares, merchandise and materials purchased, traded for or acquired by them. Such report shall give a full and accurate description of such secondhand goods, wares, merchandise and materials so purchased, traded for or acquired by them, together with the name and address of the person from whom the same were purchased, traded for or acquired. Such report shall be duly verified by the oath of such dealer, if an individual, and if a corporation, by the manager or officer in charge of the business thereof in the city.

Sec. 11-148 Failure to make report; falsely describing articles.

Any dealer in secondhand automobiles, furniture, jewelry, clothing or other goods, wares, merchandise or materials who shall fail to make the report required by section 18-332 or who shall falsely describe any such secondhand automobiles, furniture, jewelry, clothing or other goods, wares, merchandise or materials so purchased, traded for or acquired or who shall falsely report the name and address of the person from whom the same was purchased, traded for or acquired shall be guilty of a violation of this article, and, upon conviction thereof, the license of such dealer shall thereupon be revoked and cancelled.

Sec. 11-149 Purchases from minors—Written authorization of parent or guardian required; information to be shown.

No dealer in secondhand automobiles, furniture, jewelry, clothing or other secondhand goods, wares or merchandise, operating within the city, shall purchase or acquire any automobiles, furniture, jewelry, clothing or other goods, wares or merchandise from any person under the age of eighteen (18) years without obtaining the written authorization of the father, mother or legal guardian of such minor authorizing such dealer to make such purchase or acquisition and fully and accurately describing such goods, wares, merchandise or materials then being so purchased or acquired by such dealer from such minor and giving the name, address and age of such minor and the name and address of such father, mother or legal guardian of such minor; provided, that such written authorization shall be executed personally by such father, mother or legal guardian of such minor in the presence of and witnessed by such dealer at his place of business at the time of such purchase or acquisition from such minor by such dealer as aforesaid.

Sec. 11-150 Same—Reports to be made to chief of police.

Every dealer regulated by this article shall within twenty-four (24) hours of any purchase or acquisition by him from any minor of any automobile, furniture, jewelry, clothing or other goods, wares or merchandise, file with the chief of police a report of such purchase or acquisition. Such report shall be in writing under the oath of the dealer and subscribed to by him. Such report shall fully and accurately describe the automobile, furniture, jewelry, clothing or other goods, wares or merchandise, so purchased or acquired from such minor. It shall further state fully therein the time of the purchase or acquisition and the name, address and age of the minor together with the name and address of his father, mother or legal guardian executing the authorization; provided, that such reports required by this section may be filed by such dealers with the chief of police as required by section 18-332.

Sec. 11-151 Same—Corporations to designate officer or agent to make and transact purchases.

If the dealer contemplated by this article is a corporation, then such corporation shall file with the chief of police a written designation, which shall be under the seal of such corporation and executed by its president and secretary, which designation shall state the name of the officer, agent, servant or employee designated by such corporation to make and transact its purchases and acquisitions from minors in the city, and no more than one person shall be so designated therein. No officer, agent, servant or employee of any such corporate dealer shall purchase or acquire from any minor any automobile, furniture, jewelry, clothing or other goods, wares or merchandise unless such officer, agent, servant or employee shall have been designated by such corporate dealer in the manner aforesaid, and shall have consented in writing in the presence of and to the chief of police to such designation. All requirements, provisions and prohibitions of this article shall apply with full and equal force to the person so designated and so consenting to such designation.

Sec. 11-152 Same—Purchases on Sunday or at night prohibited.

No dealer under the purview of this article shall make any purchase or acquisition from a minor on Sunday or at night.

Sec. 11-153 Exemptions.

All nonprofit corporations, associations and organizations shall be exempt from the provisions and requirements of this article.

ARTICLE XIII. SPECIAL SALES

DIVISION 1. GENERALLY

Sec. 11-155 Definitions.

For the purposes of this article, the following words and phrases shall have the meanings respectively ascribed to them by this section:

Fire and other altered goods sales. Sales held out in such a manner as reasonably to cause the public to believe that the sale will offer goods damaged or altered by fire, smoke, water or other means.

Going-out-of-business sale. A sale held out in such a manner as reasonably to cause the public to believe that upon the disposal of the stock of goods on hand the business will cease and be discontinued, including but not limited to the following sales: Adjusters', adjustment, alteration, assignee's, bankrupt, benefit of trustees, building coming down, closing, creditors' committee, creditors', end, executors', final days, forced out of business, insolvent, last days, lease expires, liquidation, loss of lease, mortgage sale, receiver's trustees, quitting business or removal. Any sale using any of the foregoing words or words of similar import, at the conclusion of which sale the business will not cease and be discontinued, and not publishing that fact or the qualified nature of such sale with equal prominence with each advertisement of such sale, shall be deemed to be a going-out-of-business sale.

Goods. Any goods, wares, merchandise or other property capable of being the object of a sale regulated under this chapter.

Publish, publishing, advertising and advertisement. Such terms shall include all means of conveying to the public notice of a sale or notice of intention to conduct a sale, whether by word of mouth, newspaper advertisement, magazine advertisement, handbill, written notice, printed display, billboard display, poster, radio announcement and all other means, including oral, written or printed.

Cross reference—Rules of construction and definitions generally, § 1-2.

Sec. 11-156 Advertising.

(a) All advertising media and the language contained therein shall be in accordance with the purpose of the sale, as stated in the application pursuant to which a permit under this article was issued, and the wording of such advertising media shall not vary from the wording indicated in the application. Such advertising should contain a statement in these words and in no others:

"Sale held pursuant to City of West Palm Beach, Palm Beach County, Florida, Permit No. _____ granted the _____ day of _____."

(b) The blank spaces in the above statement shall be filled in to indicate type of sale, the permit number and the requisite date.

Cross reference—Advertising, Ch. 3.

Sec. 11-157 Books and records of permittee.

Suitable books and records, as prescribed by the tax collector or his authorized agent, shall be kept by the permittee under this article and shall be available during business hours to the tax collector or his authorized agent. At the close of business each day, the stock list attached to the application shall be revised, and those items disposed of during such day shall be so marked thereon.

Sec. 11-158 Duties of permittees.

A permittee under this article shall:

(1) Make no additions whatsoever, during the period of authorized sale, to the stock of goods set forth in the inventory attached to the application for a permit under this chapter.

(2) Refrain from employing any untrue, deceptive or misleading advertising media.

(3) Conduct the authorized sale in strict conformity with any advertising or holding out incident thereto.

Sec. 11-159 Exemptions.

The provisions of this article shall not apply to or affect the following persons:

(1) Those acting pursuant to an order or process of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) Those acting in accordance with their powers and duties as public officers, such as sheriffs, marshals, etc.

(3) Duly licensed auctioneers, selling at auction.

Sec 11-160 Reserved

DIVISION 2. PERMIT

Sec. 11-161 Required; waiver of requirement.

No person shall publish or conduct any sale of the type defined in sction 18-351 without first securing a permit therefor, however this requirement for a permit and the fee therefor may be waived by the city commission if after a hearing, the city commission determines that compliance with this requirement would impose a hardship on the applicant. Applications for waiver of this requirement must be filed by the applicant at least ten (10) days prior to the actual sale. Applications shall be in writing and shall briefly state the reasons therefor. All applications shall be filed in the office of the city tax collector. A waiver of this requirement shall not operate as a waiver of the other requirements of this article.

Sec. 11-162 Application; inventory of goods.

Permits required by this division shall be issued by the city tax collector, upon written application, on the form prescribed by the tax collector. Such application shall contain a description of the place where such sale is to be held, the nature of the occupancy, i.e., whether by lease or sublease, the effective date of termination of such occupancy and the means to be employed in publishing such sale. Such application shall further contain, as a part thereof, an itemized list of the goods to be offered for sale.

Sec. 11-163 Investigation of applicant; issuance.

Upon receipt of an application for a permit under this division and the payment of the fee prescribed in the city license shcedule, the tax collector shall examine the same, and may make such investigation as he may deem proper of the facts therein alleged. If, after such investigation, the application is approved, the tax collector shall forthwith issue a permit for the publication and conduct of such sale, subject to the terms and conditions set out in this article.

Sec. 11-164 Surrender of other licenses upon issuance.

Upon being issued a permit for a going-out-of-business sale, the permittee shall surrender to the tax collector all other business or occupational licenses he may hold at that time applicable to the location licenses he may hold at that time applicable to the location and goods covered by the application for a permit under this division, which license or licenses shall thereupon be cancelled.

Sec. 11-165 Fees.

Upon filing an original application or renewal application for a permit to advertise and conduct a sale defined in section 18-351, the applicant shall pay to the tax collector the requisite fee as set forth in the city license schedule.

Sec. 11-166 Payment of personal property taxes prerequisite to issuance of permit.

Before any person may secure a closing-out-sale permit, he shall have paid or caused to have paid all personal property taxes which have been assessed by the city.

Sec. 11-167 Term.

The authorization for the sale described in the application for a permit under this division shall be for a period of not to exceed thirty (30) consecutive days, counting Sundays and legal holidays, following the issuance thereof.

Sec. 11-168 Renewal.

(a) The tax collector may renew a permit issued under this division for one period of time only, such period to be in addition to the thirty (30) days permitted in the original permit, and not to exceed the next thirty (30) consecutive days, counting Sundays and legal holidays, when he finds that:

(1) Facts exist justifying the permit renewal.

(2) The permittee has filed an application for renewal.

(3) The permittee has submitted a revised inventory, showing the items listed on the original inventory remaining unsold and not listing any goods not included in the original application and inventory.

(b) For the purposes of this section, any application for a permit under the provisions of this article covering any goods previously inventoried, as required under this article, shall be deemed to be an application for renewal, whether presented by the original applicant or by any other person.

Sec. 11-169 Limitation on issuance to previous holders.

A permittee shall not be granted a permit to conduct a going-out-of-business sale for the same business at the same location or at any other location within the city within twelve (12) months from the termination of a prior going-out-of-business sale, nor shall a permit be granted to a corporation if any principal was a permittee or principal of a permittee for the same business at the same location or at any other location within the city within twelve (12) months prior to the present application for a permit.

Sec. 11-170 Type of sale authorized; location.

Permits issued under this division shall authorize only the one type of sale described in the application at the location named therein.

Sec. 11-171 Goods authorized to be sold.

Permits issued under this division shall authorize only the sale of goods described in the inventory attached to the application for such permit.

Sec. 11-172 Nontransferable.

No permit issued under this division shall be assignable or transferable.

Sec. 11-173 Display; duplicate stock list.

Upon commencement of any sale defined in section 18-351, the permit issued therefor shall be prominently displayed near or at the entrance to the premises. A duplicate stock list shall be filed with the tax collector, who may examine all merchandise in the premises for comparison with such stock list.

Sec. 11-174 Reserved

ARTICLE XIV. TERMITE, INSECT, RODENT AND PEST EXTERMINATION*

Sec. 11-175 License—Required.

It shall be unlawful for any person to engage, within the city, in any one or all of the businesses of control, eradication or extermination of termites, insects, rodents or pests without having first been licensed by the city tax collector to engage therein.

Sec. 11-176 Same—Exceptions.

The businesses described in section 18-392 shall not be considered to include any business engaged solely in the control, eradication or extermination of termites, insects, rodents or pests as an incidence of the raising, planting, cultivation, fertilization or harvesting of plants, vegetables, flowers, shrubs, trees or the natural products thereof.

Sec. 11-177 Same—Fee.

It shall be unlawful for any person to conduct any of the businesses aforesaid, except those excluded by section 18-393, without having first paid the license fee or having procured a license from the city tax collector as required by the license schedule in force and effect at the time of application for such license.

Sec. 11-178 Same—Application; information to be shown.

Every person, not less than six (6) days before being licensed by the city tax collector to conduct any of the businesses described in section 18-392, shall file with the city tax collector an application requesting the issuance of license to the applicant, which application shall be signed and sworn to by the applicant before a duly authorized and acting notary public and which application shall specify the kind of business, the address of the intended place of business of the applicant, the length of time and the place where the applicant has been engaged in the business for which license is applied, whether the applicant or any of the members, officers, agent or servants of such applicant (still active for such applicant at the time of filing of the application) has ever been convicted of the breach or violation of any provision of this Code or other city ordinance controlling, regulating or attempting to control or regulate the conduct of the business specified by such application, or has ever been convicted of any crime or misdemeanor, and if there has been any such conviction or crime or misdemeanor, breach or violation of this Code or an ordinance, the application shall state the date, place and for what act, or failure to act, such conviction of crime or misdemeanor, breach or violation of this Code or an ordinance was entered, made or pronounced and the name of the person convicted of such crime or misdemeanor, or the breach or violation of an ordinance aforesaid; and whether or not such applicant possesses a valid certificate of registration issued pursuant to the Structural Pest Control Act of 1947 and laws amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto.

Sec. 11-179 Same—Examination and investigation of application; granting or refusal of license.

The city tax collector of the city shall examine and investigate every application for license to engage in business under this article, and if it is made to appear to the tax collector that such applicant or any agent, officer, servant or employee of such applicant (still active for such applicant at the time of filing of the application) has been convicted within one year of the time of the filing of such application of the breach or violation of any provision of this Code, ordinances, state law, rule or regulation controlling or regulating, or attempting to control or regulate, the conduct of the business specified by such application, or has been convicted within one year of the time of the filing of such application, of any crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or that his certificate of registration has been revoked, the tax collector shall refuse to grant such application for license. Otherwise, the license shall be issued upon the payment of the license fee and filing of bond or a certificate of insurance required by section 18-403.

Sec. 11-180 Same—Issuance.

All licenses issued under this article shall be issued by the city tax collector.

Sec. 11-181 Same—Nontransferable.

No license issued under this article shall be transferable.

Sec. 11-182 Same—Term; not to be issued for less than one year; exception.

Licenses issued under this article shall be issued for no longer period of time than one license year, which license year shall commence with and include October first of the year of issuance and end with and include September thirtieth of the succeeding year. No license shall be issued under this chapter for less than one year; except, that on or after April first of any year, a license may be issued for the period of time commencing with and including the date of issuance of such license and ending with and including the immediately succeeding September thirtieth

Sec. 11-183 Same—Authority to revoke licenses and reject applications generally.

The city commission shall have full power and authority to revoke, without any previous notice that it intends to do so, any license issued under this article upon a breach or violation of any of the terms or provisions of this article by the licensee to whom such license was issued, or by any one of the agents, officers, servants or employees of such licensee, or upon the conviction in a court of competent jurisdiction of the licensee to whom such license was issued, or upon the conviction in a court of competent jurisdiction of any one of the agents, officers, servants or employees of such licensee, of any violation or breach of this article. After any such breach, violation or conviction, the city tax collector shall have, and is hereby vested with full power and authority to reject any application by the licensee, or any application of any one of the agents, officers, servants or employees of such licensee, who has been guilty of any such breach or violation or who has been convicted as aforesaid, filed with the city tax collector for issuance of any license under this article, if such application is so filed within one year from the date of such breach.

Sec. 11-184 Same—Notification of applicant of revocation or refusal of license; right of applicant to petition commission to reconsider; hearing.

Should any license of any licensee under this article be revoked by the city commission under the powers contained in this article, or should the application of any applicant under this article be refused or rejected under the powers contained in this article, the licensee whose license has been so revoked or the applicant whose application has been so refused or rejected shall be notified of such action by the mailing of a notice of such action by the city clerk by United States mail to such licensee or applicant at the address of the intended place of business of such licensee or applicant, as shown by the application filed for such license, whereupon such licensee or applicant may file a petition with the city clerk, within fifteen (15) days from the mailing of the notice, requesting the city commission to reconsider such revocation, refusal or rejection. The city clerk shall, within ten (10) days from the filing of the petition, notify the petitioner, by mailing notice as aforesaid, in writing, of a date, hour and place where a hearing will be held before the city commission for reconsideration of such action. The date, hour and place when and where such hearing for reconsideration shall be held shall be designated by the city commission upon the request therefor by the city clerk. The date when such hearing for reconsideration shall be held shall be not less than ten (10) days from the mailing as aforesaid of the notice last hereinabove mentioned. The petition shall set forth the grounds upon which the petitioner believes that the city commission should reconsider and reverse its previous action. It shall not be necessary for any answer to be filed to the petition, and the matters set forth in the petition shall be at issue upon the filing of the petition. At the appointed time and place, the city commission shall proceed to hear the matter of the petition, testimony and arguments, and shall reconsider its previous action. At the conclusion of the hearing, the city commission shall enter an order either confirming or reversing its previous action, and the petitioner, the city tax collector, and all other persons concerned shall thenceforth be governed and proceed accordingly.

Sec. 11-185 Same—Licensee to be assigned number; display of number on trucks, etc.

Every licensee under this article shall be assigned a permanent number, which number, together with the name and nature of the business in which such licensee is engaged, shall be plainly and continuously displayed on all trucks or other vehicles used in connection with the conduct of such business.

Sec. 11-186 Bond or insurance policy required; procedure upon cancellation, etc.

Every person engaged in any one or all of the businesses enumerated in section 18-392, except those mentioned in section 18-393, shall be required to maintain at all times, a bond or public liability and property damage insurance with a minimum limit of not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00). At the time application is made and before a license can be issued, such person shall file such bond or a certificate signed by a qualified agent of an insurance company authorized to do business in the state, stating that a policy has been issued to such person for such public liability and property damage insurance; the policy number; the name of the company; the effective and expiration dates of such policy; the amount of insurance and a statement and copy of an endorsement placed on such policy and requiring thirty (30) days' written notice by registered mail to the tax collector if it becomes necessary for any reason to cancel the policy. In the event of a cancellation of policy, the tax collector shall immediately notify the licensee, and the licensee shall be required to furnish a new certificate in full compliance with the terms of this section within ten (10) days from the date of such notice. Failure to do so shall constitute a violation of this section and the license of such person shall automatically be revoked. A license may be reinstated by the tax collector when the licensee shall have furnished a bond or new certificate of insurance in compliance with this section.

Sec. 11-187 Permit from building inspector—Required.

Every licensee under this article, before he commences work upon each job, contract or piece of work which he intends to do under the license issued to him, shall file an application in writing with the building inspector of the city for a permit and shall obtain a permit from the building inspector to do such job, contract or piece of work; provided, that licensees under this chapter, where the specific instance of operation involves only roaches, mice, rats, fleas, bedbugs, ticks, yellow jackets, snakes, moths or other nonwood destroying insects or pests, shall not be required to comply with the provisions of this section.

Sec. 11-188 Same—Application; information to be shown.

The written application filed with the building inspector under the provisions of section 18-404 shall contain the correct address where such job, contract or piece of work is to be done, the description of the work to be done and materials to be used by the applicant in the performance of such job, contract or piece of work and the name and address of the person intending to employ him to do such job, contract or piece of work.

Sec. 11-189 Same—Fee.

The applicant for a permit under section 18-404 shall also deposit with and deliver to the building inspector, contemporaneously with the filing of the application for a permit, a fee of three dollars and fifty cents ($3.50), which fee the building inspector shall promptly deliver to the city treasurer. The city treasurer shall dispose of such fees in the same manner as he disposes of money derived from building permits issued by the building inspector.

Sec. 11-190 Same—Examination of premises by building inspector; notification of intended employer of results of examination; issuance or refusal of permit.

(a) Within a reasonable time after written application for a permit under the provisions of section 18-405 has been filed with the building inspector, the building inspector shall examine the premises, unless the lawful possessor or owner thereof objects, upon which the job, contract or piece of work described in the written application for a permit is to be done. If the building inspector finds from such examination that it is reasonably necessary for the protection of the life, health or property of the occupant or owner of the premises for such job, contract or piece of work to be done, and if he further finds that the materials to be used by such applicant, and the manner and place in which he intends to use them in the performance of such job, contract or piece of work, will not be injurious to the life, health or property of the occupant or owner of the premises, he shall promptly issue such permit to the applicant.

(b) If the building inspector shall find from such examination that it is not reasonably necessary for the protection of the life, health or property of the occupant or owner of the premises for such job, contract or piece of work to be done, or if he finds that the materials to be used by the applicant, and the manner and place in which he intends to use them in the performance of such job, contract or piece of work will be injurious to the life, health or property of the occupant or owner of the premises, he shall promptly notify the intended employer of such applicant named in the application for a permit accordingly and such intended employer may then exercise his judgment whether he desires that such permit be issued. Such exercise of judgment may be signified in writing by the intended employer to the building inspector within five (5) days after such notification has been received by such intended employer. If the intended employer signifies that he desires that such permit be issued, the building inspector shall issue such permit accordingly. Should the intended employer signify that he desires that such permit be not issued or should be fail to make any signification within the period of five (5) days, the building inspector shall reject such application for a permit and shall notify the applicant that such permit will not be issued by him.

ARTICLE XV. TRANSIENT MERCHANTS, ITINERANT MERCHANTS AND ITINERANT VENDORS*

DIVISION 1. GENERALLY

Sec. 11-192 Definition.

The terms "transient merchant," "itinerant merchant" or "itinerant vendor" shall mean any person, whether as owner, agent, consignee or employee, whether a resident of the city or not, who engages in a temporary business of selling and delivering goods, wares and merchandise within the city, and who, in furtherance of such purpose, hires, leases, uses or occupies any building, structure, motor vehicle, tent, railroad boxcar, boat, public room in any hotel, lodginghouse, apartment, shop or any street, alley or other place within the city for the exhibition and sale of such goods, wares and merchandise, either privately or at public auction; provided that, such definition shall not be construed to include any person who, while occupying such temporary location, does not sell from stock, but exhibits samples only for the purpose of securing orders for future delivery only. The person so engaged shall not be relieved from complying with the provisions of this article merely by reason of associating temporarily with any local dealer, trader, merchant or auctioneer or by conducting such transient business in connection with, as a part of or in the name of any local dealer, trader, merchant or auctioneer.

Cross reference—Rules of construction and definitions generally, § 1-2.

Sec. 11-193 Records of licenses and violations.

The chief of police shall report to the tax collector any complaints against any licensee under this article and any conviction or any violation hereof. The tax collector shall keep a record of all such licenses and of such complaints and violations.

Sec. 11-194 Enforcement of article.

It shall be the duty of the police officers of the city to examine all places of business and persons in their respective territories to determine if the provisions of this article and other pertinent statutes, provisions of this Code and other city ordinances have been complied with, and to enforce the provisions of the same against any person found to be in violation thereof.

Sec. 11-195 Reserved

DIVISION 2. LICENSE

Sec. 11-196 Required.

It shall be unlawful for any transient or itinerant merchant or vendor to engage in such business within the city without first applying for and obtaining a license therefor in compliance with the provisions of this division.

Sec. 11-197 Application.

Applicants for a license under this division shall file a written, sworn application with the tax collector, upon the form prescribed by the tax collector.

Sec. 11-198 Investigation of applicant; issuance or refusal of license.

(a) Upon receipt of an application for a license under this division, a copy thereof shall be referred to the chief of police, who shall cause such investigation of the applicant's business and moral character to be made as he shall deem necessary for the protection of the public health and well-being.

(b) If, as a result of such investigation, the applicant's character or business responsibility is found to be unsatisfactory, the chief of police shall endorse on such application his disapproval and his reasons therefor, and return the application to the tax collector, who shall notify the applicant that his application has not been approved and that no license will be issued.

(c) If, as a result of such investigation, the character and business responsibility of the applicant are found to be satisfactory, the chief of police shall endorse on such application his approval and return such application to the tax collector, who shall, upon payment of the prescribed license fee, deliver to the applicant a license as provided in this division. Such license shall be in the form prescribed by the tax collector.

Sec. 11-199 Appeal from action of chief of police upon denial.

Any person aggrieved by the decision of the chief of police in regard to the denial of application for license, as provided in the preceding section, shall have the right to appeal to the city commission. Such appeal shall be taken by filing with the with clerk, within fourteen (14) days after notice of the decision by the chief of police has been mailed to such person's last known address, a written statement setting forth the grounds for the appeal. The city commission shall set the time and place for a hearing on such appeal and notice of such hearing shall be given to the appellant in the same manner as provided in section 18-443. The decision and order of the city commission on such appeal shall be final.

Sec. 11-200 Fees.

Licensees under this division shall pay a license fee of thirty dollars ($30.00) per month. The tax collector may charge a daily or weekly rate not exceeding three dollars ($3.00) per day or fifteen dollars ($15.00) per week, if the business of the applicant is such as to make such rate more equitable than a monthly rate.

Sec. 11-201 Exhibition; separate license required for each place of business.

The license issued under this division shall be posted conspicuously in the place of business named therein. In the event that the person applying for such license shall desire to do business in more than one place within the city, separate licenses may be issued for each such place of business, which licenses shall likewise be posted in a conspicuous position in each such place of business.

Sec. 11-202 Expiration.

All licenses issued under the provisions of this division shall expire ninety (90) days after the date of issuance thereof, unless a prior date is fixed therein.

Sec. 11-203 Revocation—Grounds.

Licenses issued pursuant to this division may be revoked by the city commission, after due notice and hearing, for any one of the following causes:

(1) Any fraud, misrepresentation or false statement contained in the application for a license under this division.

(2) Any fraud, misrepresentation or false statement made in connection with the selling of goods, wares or merchandise.

(3) Any violation of this article or any other pertinent provision of this Code, other city ordinance or statute.

(4) Conviction of the licensee of any felony or of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude.

(5) Conducting the business licensed under this article in an unlawful manner or in such a manner as to constitute a breach of the peace or to constitute a menace to the health, safety or general welfare of the public.

Sec. 11-204 Same—Notice of hearing.

Notice of hearing for revocation of a license under this division shall be given in writing, setting forth specifically the grounds of the complaint and the time and place of the hearing. Such notice shall be mailed by the city clerk to the licensee, at his last known address, at least five (5) days prior to the date set for the hearing.

ARTICLE XVI. TRAVEL BUREAUS

DIVISION 1. GENERALLY

Sec. 11-206 Definition.

A "travel bureau," as used in this article, shall be defined as any person who shall operate, maintain or conduct in the city a place of business for the solicitation of passenger transportation or for the sale, exchange, barter or transfer of passenger transportation or tickets by water, rail, air or motor or shall hold himself out as being in the business of acting as an intermediary or medium between carriers of such passengers and the traveling public, whether or not such carriers are regulated by law, and shall receive compensation for such services, either from the carriers or passengers; provided that, nothing contained in this article shall be construed to apply to carriers selling transportation directly over their own respective lines.

Cross reference—Rules of construction and definitions generally, § 1-2.

Sec. 11-207 Tickets, reservations and passenger accommodations—Procuring for another.

It shall be unlawful for any person to require, charge or receive a fee or service charge in excess of one dollar ($1.00) for the procurement on behalf of another by purchase or otherwise, of any ticket, reservation or passenger accommodation issued by any common carrier including a railroad, sleeping car company, steamship company, air line or certificated bus line.

Sec. 11-208 Same—Restrictions as to sale, etc.

It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, resell or cause to be resold any ticket, reservation or passenger accommoation issued by any common carrier, including a railroad, sleeping car company, steamship company, air line or certificated bus line, at a price in excess of one dollar ($1.00) over and above the established tariff charge for such ticket, reservation or passenger accommodation, as published and filed by any common carrier, including a railroad sleeping car company, steamship company, air line or certified bus line.

Sec. 11-209 Same—Posting of sections 18-455 and 18-456.

The person responsible for the management of each travel agency or hotel operating within the city shall cause a copy of sections 18-455 and 18-456 to be posted in a conspicuous place upon the premises of the agency or hotel for the information of patrons, guests and members of the public at large. The city clerk shall, upon demand, furnish copies of sections 18-455 and 18-456 for such purpose.

Sec. 11-210 Reserved

DIVISION 2. LICENSE

Sec. 11-211 Required.

It shall be unlawful for any person to operate, maintain or conduct a travel bureau in the city without obtaining a license, as provided in this division.

Sec. 11-212 Application; issuance of occupational license; evidence of contract with carriers.

(a) Before any travel bureau may be operated, conducted or maintained in the city, the person wishing to operate and maintain the same shall apply to the city tax collector for a license therefor, on the requisite forms furnished by the tax collector.

(b) Upon the making of an application for a travel bureau license and the payment of the license fee prescribed by the license schedule, the tax collector may issue a license to such person to conduct, operate and maintain a travel bureau in the city subject to the applicant providing satisfactory proof of the existence of a contract between such party wishing to continue operating a travel bureau and a bona fide transportation company duly authorized to carry passengers for hire by rail, water, motor or air, whereby the proposed travel bureau is authorized by such carrier to act as its agent in the sale of tickets or passenger transportation over the lines or routes of such carrier. Such license shall be valid until revoked under the provisions of section 18-469 and sections 18-44 through 18-48 of the Code of the city, or until any annual license fee shall not be paid by such travel bureau within the time required by law. No license to operate, conduct or maintain a travel bureau in the city shall be allowed except upon compliance with the foregoing.

(c) Before the expiration of ninety (90) days, the applicant shall produce satisfactory proof of the existence of a contract between such party wishing to continue operating a travel bureau and a bona fide transportation company duly authorized to carry passengers for hire by rail, water, motor or air, whereby the travel bureau is authorized by such carrier to act as its agent in the sale of tickets or passenger transportation over the lines or routes of such carrier. If satisfactory proof of contract is not presented to the tax collector within ninety (90) days after the issuance of the occupational license, the license shall be revoked under section 18-469.

Sec. 11-213 Issuance; fee; term.

Upon completion of the application for a license under this division, the occupational license may be issued in accordance with section 18-467 and the fee shall be as required in the schedule in section 18-50. Such license shall be valid for the term specified in article II of this chapter unless revoked under section 18-469 or article II of this chapter.

Sec. 11-214 Revocation.

(a) If satisfactory proof of a contract has not been presented to the tax collector within ninety (90) days from the date of issuance of a license, the license shall be revoked according to section 18-44 through 18-48.

(b) If at any time a duly licensed travel bureau or any of its officers, agents or employees shall solicit passenger transportation or tickets therefor, which transportation violates any statute of the state pertaining to the transportation of passengers for hire, the city tax collector shall revoke forthwith the license of such travel bureau and the same shall not be reinstated, nor shall such person or any new firm in which such person is interested be licensed or permitted to operate, maintain or conduct a travel bureau in the city.

(c) This section is not intended, nor shall it be construed, to exempt any travel bureau from the operation or requirements of this article because the particular or proposed transportation is not regulated by any law of this state.

HEALTH AND SANITATION*

ARTICLE I. IN GENERAL

Sec. 11-215. Rules and regulations of county health officer.

The county health officer is hereby authorized and directed to make such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the rules and regulations of the state department of health and rehabilitative services, to preserve and promote the public health and to prevent the introduction or spread of any contagious or infectious disease within the city, and to make any and all rules and regulations necessary or suitable to secure the health, morals and comfort of the inhabitants of the city. It shall be the duty of the health officer to see to the promulgation and publication of such rules and regulations by posting the same on the bulletin board in the office of the city clerk.

Sec. 11-216. Assistance in enforcing rules and regulations.

It shall be the duty of the city manager and the chief of police, when called upon by the county health officer, to furnish the health officer with all requisite means to enforce any and all regulations promulgated by the state department of health and rehabilitative services and to make any and all arrests for any violation of any such rules which have been duly promulgated.

Sec. 11-217 Violation of rules.

It shall be unlawful for any person to violate any rules promulgated by the county health officer respecting the preservation of the public peace, property, morals and safety of the citizens of the city.

Sec. 11-218 Reserved

ARTICLE II AMBULANCES

DIVISION 1. GENERALLY

Sec. 11-219 Definitions.

For the purposes of this article, the following words and phrases shall have the meanings respectively ascribed to them by this section:

Ambulance. Any vehicle designed, equipped and used to carry or transport sick or injured persons.

Ambulance driver. Any person employed to drive or actually engaged in the driving of an ambulance.

Ambulance operator. Any person engaged in the business of carrying or transporting sick or injured persons by means of an ambulance.

Certificate of convenience and necessity. The written authority granted by the city commission to engage in the business of operating an ambulance.

Cross reference—Rules of construction and definitions generally, § 1-2.

Sec. 11-220 Qualifications for drivers.

No person shall be permitted to operate or drive an ambulance in the city unless and until he has first secured:

(1) An identification card from the police department; and

(2) A valid chauffeur's license issued by the state.

Sec. 11-221 Reports to police.

Within twenty-four (24) hours after conveying any injured person to any public or private hospital or removing him therefrom or after conveying or removing any such person from any place within the city to another place within the city or beyond its limits, a person owning or operating an ambulance or his agent or employee shall notify the police department in writing of such operation. Such notice shall give the name and address of such injured person, when such information is available, and the place to and from which such person was removed

Sec. 11-222 Grounds for revocation of certificates and licenses.

The city commission shall revoke any certificate of public convenience and necessity and license issued under this article upon any of the following grounds:

(1) If such certificate and license were procured by a false or fraudulent statement of a material fact, when such fact, if it had been disclosed, would have constituted a just cause for refusal to issue such certificate and license.

(2) If the licensee has paid anything in the form of a gratuity or consideration to any public officer or other person not involved in an accident for any information as to the location of the accident or for being called to the scene of an accident or a disabled person, or for performing any of the services contemplated to be performed under the provisions of this article, except when such services are performed by a qualified employee of the licensee.

(3) If the licensee fails to keep in full force and effect the policy of insurance required by this article.

(4) If the licensee fails to provide adequate service.

Sec. 11-223 Appeal from denial or revocation of certificate and license.

An applicant for a certificate of public convenience and necessity under this article who has been denied such a certificate or whose certificate and license have been suspended or revoked, pursuant to the provisions of this article, shall have the right of appeal from such action to the city commission. Such appeal shall be in writing and shall be filed with the city clerk. Such appeal need not be in formal language, but shall state concisely the name of the appellant, the matter complained of and the date of the denial, revocation or suspension. The city clerk shall transmit such appeal to the city commission at its next regular meeting, at which time the commission shall set a date for hearing and cause the city clerk to give notice of the time and place of such hearing to the appellant, who may appear in person or by counsel. The commission shall determine such appeal within thirty (30) days after such hearing and its decision thereon shall be final.

Sec. 11-224 Reserved

DIVISION 2. CERTIFICATE OF PUBLIC CONVENIENCE AND NECESSITY

Sec. 11-225 Required.

It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in the business of operating an ambulance within the city or from a point within the city without first having obtained from the city commission a certificate of public convenience and necessity.

Sec. 11-226 Issuance; determination of need.

(a) The city commission shall issue a certificate of public convenience and necessity required by this division when it has determined that the public convenience and necessity require the proposed ambulance service for which an application has been submitted.

(b) In determining whether public convenience and necessity require the licensing of the proposed ambulance service, the city commission shall consider whether the public is, at the time, adequately served, the financial responsibility of the applicant, the number, kind and type of equipment, the schedule of rates proposed to be charged, the increased traffic congestion upon the streets of the city, the demand for increased parking space upon the streets which will result, whether the safe use of the streets by the public, both vehicular and pedestrian, will be preserved, and such other facts as the city commission shall consider relevant.

Sec. 11-227 Compliance with article and other laws.

All the requirements of this article and all other governing laws and ordinances shall be met prior to the issuance of a certificate of public convenience and necessity under this division.

Sec. 11-228 May be denied by commission.

The city commission may deny a certificate of public convenience and necessity under this division if it shall determine, after due notice and hearing thereon, that public convenience and necessity do not require the issuance thereof.

Sec. 11-229 Reserved

DIVISION 3. LICENSE

Sec. 11-230 Required.

No person shall operate an ambulance within the city or from within the city to a point outside the city without first having obtained a license to do so.

Sec. 11-231 Application; insurance requirements.

(a) Any person desiring to obtain a license for the purpose of operating an ambulance within the city or from the city to a point outside the city shall file with the city clerk an application, accompanied by a sworn statement, setting out the following:

(1) The name, business and residence address and citizenship status of the person desiring the license.

(2) A description of the ambulance, including the make, model, year or manufacture, state license number for the current year, motor and chassis numbers and the length of time the ambulance has been in use, together with the location, capacity and hourly availability of the ambulances owned or operated by the applicant.

(3) That the required license fee has been deposited with the tax collector.

(4) That the applicant carries public liability insurance issued by an insurance company authorized to do business in the state, in a minimum amount of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00) for injury or death to any one person; in a minimum amount of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000.00) for injuries or death to two (2) or more persons in the same accident and in a minimum amount of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00) for property damage resulting from any one accident.

(b) Copies of the policy required by subparagraph (a)(4) of this section shall be deposited with the tax collector and shall contain an endorsement thereon requiring the carrier to notify the city thirty (30) days in advance of an intended cancellation or any material change in such coverage. Upon such company giving notice of such intended cancellation of insurance, the certificate of the person to whom such insurance policy was issued shall be revoked, unless a new insurance policy shall be filed and accepted before the date for the cancellation of the original insurance policy. In the event of the revocation of the certificate, such person shall not be permitted or allowed to operate any such ambulance in the city unless or until he shall have obtained a new certificate of public convenience and necessity.

Sec. 11-232 Issuance.

When the city commission has determined that public convenience and necessity warrant the granting of an application for a certificate of convenience and necessity required by division 2 of this article and authorizes the granting of such certificate by the city clerk, the tax collector shall issue to the applicant a license.

Sec. 11-233 Fees; prorating of same; expiration date.

The annual license fee shall be one hundred dollars ($100.00) for the operation of ambulances. Such license fee and license shall be in lieu of any other business license fee or license. The license shall expire September thirtieth of each year and no part shall be refundable in event of cessation of business for any cause. In the case of the first license granted, the fee shall be prorated to the nearest calendar quarter on date of application.

Sec. 11-234 Reserved

insurance policy shall be filed and accepted before the date for the cancellation of the original insurance policy. In the event of the revocation of the certificate, such person shall not be permitted or allowed to operate any such handicab in the city unless or until he shall have obtained a new certificate of public convenience and necessity.

Sec. 11-249 Fees; prorating of same; expiration date.

The annual license fee shall be fifty dollars ($50.00) for the operation of handicabs. Such license fee and certificate shall be in lieu of any other business license fee or license. The license shall expire September thirtieth of each year and no part shall be refundable in the event of cessation of business for any cause. In the case of the first license granted, the fee shall be prorated to the nearest calendar quarter on date of application.

ARTICLE IV. CHILD CARE FACILITIES*

Sec. 11-251 License—Required.

No person shall open, maintain, conduct or assist in the opening, maintaining or conducting of a child care facility in the city unless he is the holder of a license which is in full force and effect and issued pursuant to the provisions of this article.

Cross reference—Licenses and miscellaneous business regulations, Ch. 18.

Sec. 11-252. Same—Application.

Any person desiring a license to open, maintain and conduct a child care facility shall make written application to the city tax collector, which application shall state the name and residence of the applicant, and if the applicant is a corporation or association, the name and residences of all of the officers thereof, the present or proposed location of the facility, the purpose for which it is opened, maintained or conducted, the accommodations provided for the children to be admitted to such facility, the name and address of the superintendent or of the person to be in charge thereof, the name and address of the examining physician of such facility, and such other information as the city tax collector may request in connection with such facility, its management, operation and personnel.

Sec. 11-253 Same—Inquiry preliminary to granting license.

After the application required by section 14-107 is made, it shall be the duty of the city tax collector to make or cause to be made a strict investigation of the statements and information contained in the application. It shall also be the duty of the county health officer to make or cause to be made a thorough inspection of the premises intended to be used for such child care facility. The county health officer shall report his findings and recommendations to the city tax collector.

Sec. 11-254. Same—Conditions upon which license shall be granted.

If the city tax collector shall find from investigation and from the report of the county health officer:

(1) That the establishment, maintenance and operation of such child care facility will not violate any other state or city law or ordinance;

(2) That the premises intended to be used as such a facility are suitably zoned for such purpose and adequately equipped with all necessary heating, ventilating and sanitary devices to insure the health and well-being of the children to be admitted to the facility.

(3) That the superintendent or other person to be in charge of such facility is of good moral character; then the city tax collector shall approve such application. Otherwise, he shall disapprove the same.

Sec. 11-255 Same—Issuance; fee; duration; reinspection required before issuance of succeeding licenses.

Upon approval by the city tax collector and upon the payment of the annual license fee as prescribed by the city license schedule, the city tax collector shall issue the license to the applicant for a child care facility. Every license issued under this article shall expire on the thirtieth day of September, following the date of issuance and no second or succeeding license shall be issued to any person except after a reinspection of the premises as in the case of the issuance of an original license.

AMUSEMENTS*

ARTICLE I. IN GENERAL

Sec. 11-257 Poolrooms or billiard rooms—Persons under eighteen prohibited; exceptions.

It shall be unlawful for any person, his servant or his employee to permit anyone under the age of eighteen (18) years to visit or frequent or play in any billiard parlor in the city; provided, however, that this section shall not apply to any person on active duty in the armed services of the United States or who has a written permit or card signed and notarized by his parent or guardian and filed in the establishment to which the permit or card is given by the parent or guardian of the minor involved or a married minor or when accompanied by parent or guardian. The permit card shall be valid only in the establishment to which it is issued, and such permit card may be revoked at any time by the parent or guardian, by the operator of the billiard parlor by returning the card to the parent or guardian or by any law enforcement officer upon conviction of the party of a crime. No written permit shall be valid in any establishment which sells or permits consumption on its premises of intoxicating or alcoholic beverages.

Sec. 11-258 Same—Hours.

No billiard room or poolroom or any place where pool or billiards are played and charge is made for the use of any pool or billiard table or cue shall be or remain open at any time between the hours of 12:00 midnight and 7:00 a.m.

Sec. 11-259 Operation of coin-operated amusement tables, etc., within three hundred feet of school grounds prohibited.

No coin-operated amusement table, pinball machine or other similar game and device shall be located or kept or allowed to be operated on any premises within three hundred (300) feet of any school grounds.

ARTICLE II. CIRCUSES, CARNIVALS AND EXHIBITIONS*

DIVISION 1. GENERALLY

Sec. 11-261 Structure not to be used as a place of assembly until inspected.

Upon the completion of the structure contemplated by this article, it shall not be used as a place of assembly until the chief of the fire department or the city building official or their designated representative shall have inspected the entire premises upon which the structure is located.

Sec. 11-262 Public liability insurance required.

The applicant for a permit under this article shall furnish evidence that a public liability insurance policy, issued by an insurance company authorized to do business in the state, in an amount of not less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00) for injuries to one person, in the amount of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00) for injuries to more than one person which are sustained in the same accident, and five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) for property damage resulting from any one accident, shall be in force and effect at the time such structure is to be occupied as a place of assembly by the public.

Sec. 11-263 Cash or surety bond required.

The applicant for a permit under this article shall deposit with the city treasurer a cash or surety bond, which shall have as surety thereon a surety company authorized to do business in this state, in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), conditioned upon saving the city harmless from all liability or causes of action which might arise by virtue of the granting of a permit to the applicant; and conditioned further, that no damage will be done to the streets, sewers, trees or adjoining property, and that no dirt, paper, litter or other debris will be permitted to remain upon the streets or upon any private property by such applicant. Such cash or surety bond will be returned to the applicant upon certification by the chief of police that all conditions of this article have been complied with.

Sec. 11-264 Deposit for use of fire department.

If the chief of the fire department shall determine that the attendance of fire equipment at the location of the structure described in section 5-36 during the use thereof as a place of assembly is necessary for the safety of persons and property, he shall require that the applicant deposit with the tax collector of the city a sum equal to the reasonable value of the use of such equipment and the furnishing of the necessary personnel for such time as will be required in order to reimburse the city for such expense

Sec. 11-265 Inspections by building official; authority of building official to adopt rules and regulations; report of violations.

(a) The city building official or his assistants shall make inspections prior to the opening of any carnival, circus, show or exhibition and from day to day during the time the same is within the city for the purpose of ascertaining that any of the persons connected with the sale or distribution of food or beverages have no communicable diseases; that the living quarters and facilities are free and clean from any conditions which might cause disease; that any utensils used in the preparation or distribution of any food or beverage are clean and that adequate sanitary facilities have been provided for the use and comfort of employees and patrons.

(b) Such official or his assistants shall have the authority to adopt and endorse reasonable regulations for the protection of the public health. It shall be unlawful for any person to violate any such regulations so promulgated.

(c) In the event such official or his assistants shall ascertain and determine that proper provisions have not been made for the protection of the public health, he shall report the same to the chief of police.

Sec. 11-266 Reserved

DIVISION 2. PERMIT

Sec. 11-267 Required.

It shall be unlawful for any person to erect, cause to be erected or maintain any temporary structure to be used as a carnival, circus, show or exhibition within the city without having made application for and receiving a permit to do so in accordance with the conditions and limitations set forth in this article.

Sec. 11-268 Application.

(a) The applicant for a permit under this division shall file an application, in writing, with the chief of the fire department, which application shall be accompanied by a set of building plans, in duplicate, drawn to scale, which shall indicate clearly:

(1) Generally.

a. Type of construction.
b. Seating arrangement.
c. Aisles.
d. Structural details and calculations of seats and supports.
e. Location of all electrical wiring.

f. Location of all exits.

g. Location of all fire equipment within the structure and the specifications of such equipment.

h. Location, insofar as feasible, of adjacent structures and obstructions which might hinder the free egress of persons from exits.

(2) Additional information. Such application shall further specify:

a. The name and principal place of business of the person who will use the structure.

b. If the applicant is not a natural person, the names and address of the officers of such firm or corporation.

c. The location within the city where such carnival, circus or show is to be held, which location shall not be within one thousand (1,000) feet of any school, cemetery or funeral home, and shall conform to the provisions of the city zoning ordinance.

d. The length of time and hours of the day or night the structure is intended to be used for the purpose applied for.

e. Whether any open flame is intended to be used within the structure, and if so, what precautions are to be taken to render it safe, together with the formula of the solution to be used to flameproof the structure.

f. What provisions have been made for sanitary facilities for persons using the premises on which such structure is to be erected or is maintained.

g. Such other relevant information as the chief of the fire department may require.

(b) The application and plans required by this section shall be submitted to the chief of the fire department at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the opening of any structure contemplated by this article and he shall be notified at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the erection of such structure, so that he may cause an inspection to be made during reasonable daylight hours.

Sec. 11-269. Same—Investigation and report by chief of fire department.

The chief of the fire department or his assistants shall determine whether or not the applicant for a permit under this division has made provision for:

(1) Adequate aisles, seats, platforms and poles.

(2) Sufficient exits, well-marked and properly lighted.

(3) Lighted and unobstructed passageways to areas leading away from the structure.

(4) Removal, before the structure is to be used as a place of public assembly, of any pole, rope or other obstruction in any aisle or exit.

(5) Inspection, before the opening of each performance, by a qualified electrician, to ascertain if any defects exist in the wiring and provision made for immediate correction of any defect which may be found.

(6) Sufficient first aid fire appliances to be distributed throughout the structure, with operating personnel familiar with the operation of such equipment available and assigned during the use of such structure as a place of assembly.

(7) Sufficient "No Smoking" signs visible at all times.

(8) An employee at each entrance to require the extinguishing of all cigarettes, cigars and other smoking materials.

(9) Announcement at frequent intervals to the persons in the assembly and enforcement of the fact that smoking within the structure is not permitted.

(10) Proper safeguarding of any use of open flames or the use thereof prohibited.

(11) The clearing of any straw, dry grass, sawdust or any combustible trash from the structure before it is opened to the public, and arrangements made to keep the area where debris may be expected to accumulate well serviced, especially under open seats.

(12) Proper facilities for calling the city fire department.

(13) Such special fire equipment of the city to attend at such structure during its use as a place of public assembly as the chief of the fire department may decide is necessary for proper fire protection.

(14) The attendance of such special police officers and firemen as the chief of the fire department and chief of police may deem necessary for the control of persons in the assembly to prevent overcrowding, obstruction of aisles and exits, and such other control as may be necessary to render the occupation of such structure by the public safe.

(15) The tent and canvas parts of the structure and all combustible decorative materials, including curtains, accoustic materials, streamers, cloth, cotton batting, straw, etc., to be rendered fireproof.

Sec. 11-270 Fees.

The applicant for a permit under this division shall pay to the tax collector of the city such fees as shall be prescribed by the license schedule of the city.

Sec. 11-271 Issuance.

If and when the chief of the fire department shall have ascertained and determined that the provisions of this article and all other provisions of this Code and other ordinances of the city, including those relating to zoning, have been complied with or will be complied with by the applicant for a permit under this division, he shall issue a permit to erect or maintain such structure as is contemplated by this article, conditioned upon such reasonable limitations and requirements as he may deem necessary for the safety of persons and property.

Sec. 11-272 Revocation; right of appeal.

(a) If the city commission ascertains and determines that any structure contemplated by this article or the premises upon which it is located is being maintained in violation of any of the provisions of the permit to erect or maintain the same or is in violation of any of the provisions of this Code or other ordinances of the city or in such a manner as to constitute a fire or health hazard or nuisance because of noise or morals, it may revoke the permit to occupy the same.

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person to cause or permit the occupancy of any such structure as a place of assembly after the revocation of any such permit.

(c) Any person whose permit to occupy has been revoked, as provided by this section, may, within ten (10) days after receipt of a notice thereof, appeal to the city commission for a hearing thereon. The decision of the city commission in this regard shall be final. If no appeal is taken within ten (10) days, the action of the city commission in revoking the permit shall be final.
