(1) Racial, religious, ethnic, or sexual group tensions, prejudice, intolerance, bigotry, and disorder occasioned thereby;

(c) To hold hearings, administer oaths, take the testimony of any person under oath, and through the issuance of a subpoena, to compel the attendance of witnesses and to require the production of any records, reports and other evidence relating to any matter under investigation or any question before the board relating to the Administration of the police department. The power of the board hereunder shall not be constructed to violate any person's due process rights nor to violate any person's statutory or constitutional rights against self-incrimination. Any subpoena issued hereunder shall not be self-enforcing, and shall require an appropriate court order issued pursuant to state law to be enforced;

(d) With City Council's approval, to issue such proposed settlements, after notice and hearing, as are necessary to correct any discriminatory practice or procedure by the police department and to require cessation of such practice and procedure, and to carry out the purposes of this ordinance. The power of the board hereunder to issue proposed settlements shall not include the power to enforce any such settlements excepted as otherwise provided in this ordinance.

(e) To attempt to resolve complaints against the police department prior to, and in lieu of, any court action through the process of conciliation and mediation or by means of proposed settlements; and

(f) To certify a case and the entire record of its proceedings to the city council.

SECTION 9. Filing of complaints -

(a) Any person may file a complaint with the board, through the City Attorney alleging any human relations conflict against the police department, even if such conflict is not in conflict with any law or ordinance. The board may, with City Council's approval and the voluntary cooperation of the respective parties, attempt conciliation or hold a public hearing on such alleged conflicts, but shall not be bound by the procedures heretofore specified.

(b) Any person alleging subjection to any aggrieved practice or procedure by the police department may file with the board, through the City Attorney, a complaint in writing, sworn to or affirmed which shall state the name and address of the complainant and the person or persons against whom the complaint is made. The complaint shall also state the alleged facts surrounding the alleged wrongful practice or procedure employed by the police department and such other information as the City Attorney may require. A complaint shall be filed within two (2) months after the date of the alleged wrongful practice or procedure and a copy of the complaint shall be served upon the party complained against and the police department within ten (10) days after it is filed with the City Prosecutor.

SECTION 10. Processing complaints -

(a) Upon filing of a complaint with the City Attorney or upon referral of a complaint to the board from the City Attorney, the City Attorney shall, within forty-five (45) days, make such investigation as he or she deems appropriate to ascertain facts and issues and present them to the board, unless the complaint be withdrawn within forty-five (45) days. In connection with an investigation of or public hearings on a complaint under this ordinance the board or the City Attorney may, by informal request, subpoena or other appropriate actions at law, seek access to premises, records and documents related to the complaint at any reasonable time and shall have the right to examine, photograph and copy evidence. Any subpoena shall be treated as an administrative subpoena and can only be enforced by an appropriate court order.

(b) If, when a complaint is presented to the board by the City Attorney, at least five (5) members of the board shall determine that there are reasonable grounds to believe a wrongful practice or procedure by the police department has occurred, the board shall then determine whether or not such complaint is susceptible of conciliation.

(c) If the board determines that a complaint is susceptible of conciliation, then, with the approval of the City Council the board shall attempt to conciliate the matter by methods of initial conferences and persuasion with all interested parties who voluntarily participate and such representatives as the parties may choose to assist them. Such conciliation conferences may be by whatever method the board determines to be most appropriate. If the initial conciliation attempt is unsuccessful, the board may order further conciliation efforts by the same or different method, or may take such other action as is hereinafter authorized.

(d) With City Council's approval, the terms of any conciliation agreed to by the parties may be reduced to writing and incorporated into a consent agreement to be signed by the parties. Unless otherwise stated, such an agreement will not constitute an admission by any party that any wrongful acts have occurred.

(e) If, upon presentation of a complaint to the board, at least five (5) members of the board shall determine that there are reasonable grounds to believe a wrongful practice or procedure has occurred, but the board determines that such complaint is not susceptible of conciliation, or if the board attempts to conciliate a complaint and is unable to do so, the board may thereafter schedule a public hearing for the purposes of determining the facts. The board shall serve upon all interested parties a notice of the time and place of the hearing. Both party making the complaint and the party complained against, or their counsel, may file such statements with the board prior to the hearing dates as they deem necessary in support of their positions. The interested parties may present testimony and evidence and shall have the right to cross-examine witnesses. All testimony and evidence shall be given under oath or by affirmation. The board shall not be bound by strict rules of evidence prevailing in courts of law or equity. The board shall keep a full record of the hearing, which records shall be public and open to inspection by any person, and, upon request by any party to the proceedings, the board shall furnish such party a copy of the hearing record, upon payment of the actual cost thereof.

(f) Following a public hearing, the board shall make such findings of fact as are supported by the evidence and testimony presented at the hearing. Should at least five (5) members of the board determine that a wrongful practice or procedure has occurred or is occurring, with the City Council's approval, the board shall issue such proposed settlements as are necessary to correct the wrongful practice or procedure and to require cessation of such practice. The contents of any proposed settlement must be approved by at least five (5) members of the board, and the City Council.

(g) Should any party fail or refuse to voluntarily accept or comply with the terms of the proposed settlement which the board may suggest; or should the board, at any time, determine that it would be fruitless or attempt to conciliate a complaint or to hold a public hearing on a complaint or should the board determine, at any time, that the provisions of a consent agreement have not been complied with, the board may refer a complaint to the City Council, and City Prosecutor with its recommendations for further investigation, with a view towards legal prosecution..

(h) The board in its discretion may at any time order that a complaint be dismissed or order such further investigation as may be necessary. Provided, however, in cases where a reasonable cause has been found by the board, the complaint shall not be dismissed without the concurrence of at least five (5) members of the board. When the board's consideration of a complaint is closed, the board shall notify the parties that the person making the complaint may still proceed independently through the courts.

SECTION 11 Jurisdiction over governmental agencies -

The board shall with approval of City Council cooperate with any governmental agency and with any agents thereof. All departments of the city shall comply with this ordinance.

SECTION 12 Limitations -

(a) The services and jurisdiction of the board in the handling of complaints and in conciliation and mediation as contained in this ordinance are advisory only subject to the approval of the City Council in each instance.

(b) Nothing in this ordinance shall be deemed to exempt or relieve person, governmental agency or institution from any liability, duty, penalty, or punishment provided by any applicable laws or ordinances.

SECTION 13

Any person, firm or corporation convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be pubished as prescribed in Section 1.8 entitled "General penalty" of the Code of Ordinances.

SECTION 14 All Ordinances or parts of Ordinances or Charter provisions in conflict herewith are to the extent of such conflict repealed.
