PUBLIC COMMENT

Michael Morell, Esq. (Murphy Companies and Cracker Boy Boat Works) commented regarding public record requests to the City dated November 14 and November 30; attached thereto were the city attorney's response dated December 11; and, thereto, correspondence between City Manager Wilkins and Palm Beach County. He suggested the appearance of dispute between the City and Palm Beach County regarding the legality of the referenced Community Redevelopment Agency, provided he had the most recent information, based on the public record requests. Attorney Morell proceeded to state concerns regarding the referenced ordinance.

Jacque Lorial (127 E. 21st Street) stated concerns regarding the Riviera Beach Community Redevelopment Agency.

Martha Babson (156 E. 21st Street) stated concerns regarding the Riviera Beach Community Redevelopment Agency. Discussion ensued.

Following a brief narrative related to circumstances surrounding the referenced ordinance and existence of the Community Redevelopment Agency, City Manager Wilkins indicated that there was no dispute between the City and Palm Beach County on the referenced issue. He indicated that concerned members of the audience might have mischaracterized correspondence from Palm Beach County to the City. Discussion ensued.

City Manager Wilkins then stated that the City did not abolish the CRA; that, the City only intended to change the governing body from an elected body to itself-as the appointed body. He indicated it could be done.

Upon roll call, the vote was unanimous. APPROVED
