BACKGROUND / SUMMARY:

City resident Msg Marilyn Davis has been in the U.S. Army Reserves for more than 30 years. In 2003, she was mobilized for 3 years to Fort Stewart, Georgia, in support of the Iraq war. Earlier this month, she returned home from Fort Stewart. Her service in Georgia followed deployment in Kuwait.

Msg Davis continues to serve our country as a member of 108 Seventh Battalion in West Palm Beach. She is committed to serving and works to encourage all of her comrades as they face the challenges of being in harm's way, being away from family and from the familiar. It is her unwavering faith in God that has allowed her to endure all of these challenges and still be able to smile. Msg Davis does it well for God, family and country.

And for that, Chair Brooks is presenting Msg Davis a 'Shero' award. Msg Davis had been chosen for the honor in January 2012, when Chair Brooks honored 22 City women during the MLK senior citizen luncheon for their community service. Msg Davis had not been able to attend.
